CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—In the retirement he will maintain for the next 12 days, Judge John R. Cavert today began consideration of the sentence he will impose Sept. 10 on Nathan Leopold Jr. and Edward Louis, co-accused kidnapers and slayers of 14-year-old Robert Grosvenor.

He had before him the nearly 100-page record of the 22 days of testimony and argument in the judicial hearing which closed yesterday, in which the "late" demanded the death penalty and the defense pleaded insanity for imprisonment, offering a theory of "mental sickness" in mitigation.

Go to Private Home.

In a private home within 100 yards of Chicago, the jurist, occupying a dual role of judge and juror, will weigh the evidence and prepare a written opinion, explaining the reasons for the sentence he will pronounce.

Judge Cavert, after hearing the case against the youths, the kidnapping charges, announced the death penalty for both in both the murder and kidnapping cases at 10 o'clock.

He said the judgment of the Court, death, defense attorneys may for a year in prison for kidnapping, and 14 years for murder.

Several defense attorneys, who had been in the courtroom, were asked to leave the bench, Judge Cavert announced, and the youths, Extra guards of men and deputies will be in the courtroom. The precautions were taken, he said, not because of the youths, but because of the mob and the possibility of a riot.

Yacht for Long Island.

Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The Prince of Wales left the liner Berengaria about an hour after she arrived at the quarantine station, lower New York harbor, this afternoon, and departed for Glen Cove, Long Island, on the yacht Black Watch.

The Prince granted a two-minute interview to a large squad of newspaper reporters in which he said he was glad to be in America again.

From Glen Cove, the Prince will be taken by automobile to Syosset, 10 miles away, where the old colonial residence of James A. Belden, on an estate of 340 acres, will be turned over to him during his two weeks' stay in America.

The Black Watch, owned by Robert Drowes, was waiting for the Berengaria. Sir Esmé Howard, the British Ambassador, and a number of distinguished guests were on board to welcome the Prince. The lower bay was filled with pleasure crafts crowded with persons who cheered the appearance of the heir to the British throne.

Prince Stammers.

Before the Berengaria entered the harbor, the Prince gave gifts to the captain and the chief officers of the liner. He expressed keen appreciation for courtesies extended. His Royal Highness was visibly surprised when he saw the large crowd of reporters and photographers who rushed toward him on the "B" deck of the liner. He stammered and seemed somewhat ill at ease as he said:

"I'm happy to be in America again. I like your country very much. The fact that I came here on a holiday is the best I can say in that direction. I am very grateful if the newspaper men would make it as easy as possible for me."

Someone asked him if he would marry an American girl. The Prince took the question as a joke, for he laughed as he replied that he didn't know.

Planes Circle Overhead.

Several small pleasure craft hovered near the great ship's side as the Prince disembarked. Two airplanes circled overhead, one of which, a few minutes before, had conveyed to him, by radio, the greetings of Gov. Smith and of Mayor Hylan.

Wales went through the usual formalities attendant upon the examination of passengers at Quarantine. He was inspected by an immigration officer and by a physician, and then with his retinue, clambered down a rope ladder to the starboard side of the Berengaria to the Black Watch.

The Prince displayed a knowledge of American slang during the course of his brief talk to newspaper men when one of them explained that he understood his highness had expressed a desire to learn the American game of poker. "Oh, cut that out," he answered with an engaging smile.

He refused to make any comment when asked if he had any suggestions to make concerning the possible successor to Sir Thomas Lipton as a challenger for the International Yacht Cup. Although the interview was a hurried affair, the Prince found time to shake hands with a number of his interlocutors, to whom he gave a hearty grip.

Stands on Bridge.

As the Berengaria came around Fort Wadsworth on her way to the Quarantine Station, three army airplanes swooped close to the ship. The Prince stood on the bridge with Capt. Irwin and his acrobats.

The royal visitor wore a suit of light gray with fine horizontal stripes. His shirt was of a blue material with a stiff collar to match and a dark red and black cravat. On his head was a gray soft hat.

Maj. William N. Hensley Jr. left Mitchell Field in an airplane at 1 o'clock to meet the Berengaria and sent by radio from the plane to the ship official messages of greetings to the Prince from Gov. Smith and Mayor Hylan.

The army plane circled above the steamer as Maj. Hensley read the welcoming messages into a broadcast apparatus installed in the cockpit. The Prince listened intently from his suite on the Berengaria.

Greetings Delivered.

Lieut. M. L. Elliott piloted the plane, which left Mitchell Field when word was received that the Berengaria had passed Fire Island. The Governor's message said:

"I have the honor to express the greetings and extend a warm, friendly welcome in behalf of the State of New York to the arrival of Your Royal Highness in our harbor. This greeting is sent you through the courtesy of the United States Army Air Service, one of the public is showing its keen interest in the coming of the Prince to be met."

ness to Support It.

Associated Press.

MOSCOW, Aug. 28.—The trial conviction yesterday of Gen. Boris Savinkoff constituted probably the most dramatic case that has come before the revolutionary war tribunal. Savinkoff, former Military Governor of Petrograd and Assistant Minister of War in the Kerensky Cabinet, was sentenced to death on a multitude of charges growing out of his seven years' struggle against the soviet regime.

A stay of execution was ordered, however, to allow an appeal for pardon to the Executive Committee as Savinkoff acknowledged his guilt and expressed a desire to support the soviet.

The case was regarded by the court as important to its safety and prestige. The courtroom was packed with members of the Government Central Committee of the communist party, the War Council and the most active members of the soviet political administration.

Many Present at Trial.

Acting Premier Kamenetz, Premier Kiliav, of the Transcaucasian Republic, and M. Kopylov, of the State Control Board, were among those who forsook their regular work in order to hear the proceedings. M. Ulrich, chairman of the Council, was present and assisted in the trial, and the jury members were members of the War Office.

There was neither prosecution nor defense, but every detail was dramatic and thrilling. Savinkoff himself a revolutionary, organized the assassination of Prime Minister Plevh, and Grand Duke Sergius, the last tsar, and the Russian revolution. He was responsible for the advance of the bolshevik revolution he assumed leadership of the anti-bolshevik forces and organized the Yaroslavl rising which ended in the demolition of the town with considerable bloodshed, as well as numerous uprisings in Siberia and Ukraine.

Raised Army in Samara.

He raised an army to defend the constituent assembly in Samara and directed activities against the bolsheviks from Poland, and all of this Savinkoff acknowledged. Speaking with emotion, he said to the court:

"I know your decision beforehand. I don't value my life, and I am not afraid to die. I recognize my guilt, but they were all involuntary, as I never sought any gain for myself."

His enmity for the reds was based on four objections, he said, namely, the breaking up of the constituent assembly, the Brest-Litovsk treaty, which was at that time detrimental to the allied cause; his certainty that the reds assumed the power for a short period, making way for re-establishment of the monarchy, and last, that the Russian people were against the reds.

He now was convinced, Savinkoff asserted, that the reds were right, and that he was wrong in regard to the support of the Russian people. He had changed his mind, but long ago in Paris he came to the conclusion that the bolsheviks were right, and now he stood unconditionally in favor of the Russian soviets.

Neck in Noose Many Times.

Savinkoff asked the court to remember, in delivering sentence, that he had never been an enemy of the people, that he had spent his life as a revolutionary and that he had had his neck in the noose a hundred times. He did not return to Russia with bombs and he had thrown his revolver away on the other side of the border.

The General was arrested Aug. 26, after passing the border under the name of Repanoff. His apartment had been watched by Russian agents abroad. His arrest and trial was begun secretly.

It was not alleged that the former military Governor had come to Russia to organize terrorist acts. Commissar Kurysky, and other authorities, however, repudiated this.

Steamer Will Try Rescue.

Associated Press.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 28.—A request that the Canadian Government send an airplane to save them has been received here from 19 men aboard the Lady Kindersley, a gasoline schooner drifting in the ice from Alaska towards the North Pole.

The appeal came through the wireless of the Lady Kindersley, which, at the last report was 60 miles from Point Barrow, Alaska, and was forwarded to Ottawa.

NOME, Alaska, Aug. 28.—The position of the steamer Boxer, United States Bureau of Education vessel, was reported yesterday to be 15 miles from the gasoline schooner Lady Kindersley, drifting in the ice with a crew of 19, 50 miles from Point Barrow, Alaska.

The Boxer was said to be ready to make a dash through the ice when conditions permitted to rescue the crew of the Lady Kindersley.

Word was also received that some of the crew of the schooner Arctic, which was stuck in the ice, will arrive here today aboard the steamer Teddy Bear. The Teddy Bear picked up some of the crew members en route to Nome from near Point Barrow.

Nine passengers aboard the gasoline schooner Maid of Orleans, which left Seattle, June 25, for Coronation Gulf, midway of the Arctic coast of North America, are believed to be safe, having departed from Teller, a reindeer station on Port Clarence, three weeks ago, reports received here today.

The army plane circled above the steamer as Maj. Hensley read the welcoming messages into a broadcast apparatus installed in the cockpit. The Prince listened intently from his suite on the Berengaria.

Greetings Delivered.

Lieut. M. L. Elliott piloted the plane, which left Mitchell Field when word was received that the Berengaria had passed Fire Island. The Governor's message said:

"I have the honor to express the greetings and extend a warm, friendly welcome in behalf of the State of New York to the arrival of Your Royal Highness in our harbor. This greeting is sent you through the courtesy of the United States Army Air Service, one of the public is showing its keen interest in the coming of the Prince to be met."

Several small pleasure craft hovered near the great ship's side as the Prince disembarked. Two airplanes circled overhead, one of which, a few minutes before, had conveyed to him, by radio, the greetings of Gov. Smith and of Mayor Hylan.

Wales went through the usual formalities attendant upon the examination of passengers at Quarantine. He was inspected by an immigration officer and by a physician, and then with his retinue, clambered down a rope ladder to the starboard side of the Berengaria to the Black Watch.

The Prince displayed a knowledge of American slang during the course of his brief talk to newspaper men when one of them explained that he understood his highness had expressed a desire to learn the American game of poker. "Oh, cut that out," he answered with an engaging smile.

He refused to make any comment when asked if he had any suggestions to make concerning the possible successor to Sir Thomas Lipton as a challenger for the International Yacht Cup. Although the interview was a hurried affair, the Prince found time to shake hands with a number of his interlocutors, to whom he gave a hearty grip.

Stands on Bridge.

As the Berengaria came around Fort Wadsworth on her way to the Quarantine Station, three army airplanes swooped close to the ship. The Prince stood on the bridge with Capt. Irwin and his acrobats.

The royal visitor wore a suit of light gray with fine horizontal stripes. His shirt was of a blue material with a stiff collar to match and a dark red and black cravat. On his head was a gray soft hat.

Maj. William N. Hensley Jr. left Mitchell Field in an airplane at 1 o'clock to meet the Berengaria and sent by radio from the plane to the ship official messages of greetings to the Prince from Gov. Smith and Mayor Hylan.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 28.—A request that the Canadian Government send an airplane to save them has been received here from 19 men aboard the Lady Kindersley, a gasoline schooner drifting in the ice from Alaska towards the North Pole.

The appeal came through the wireless of the Lady Kindersley, which, at the last report was 60 miles from Point Barrow, Alaska, and was forwarded to Ottawa.

NOME, Alaska, Aug. 28.—The position of the steamer Boxer, United States Bureau of Education vessel, was reported yesterday to be 15 miles from the gasoline schooner Lady Kindersley, drifting in the ice with a crew of 19, 50 miles from Point Barrow, Alaska.

The Boxer was said to be ready to make a dash through the ice when conditions permitted to rescue the crew of the Lady Kindersley.

Word was also received that some of the crew of the schooner Arctic, which was stuck in the ice, will arrive here today aboard the steamer Teddy Bear. The Teddy Bear picked up some of the crew members en route to Nome from near Point Barrow.

Nine passengers aboard the gasoline schooner Maid of Orleans, which left Seattle, June 25, for Coronation Gulf, midway of the Arctic coast of North America, are believed to be safe, having departed from Teller, a reindeer station on Port Clarence, three weeks ago, reports received here today.

The Man on the Sandbox

THE HALCYON DAYS.

O H, do you remember the days when the bunch would gather in front of the bar and eat 40 cents' worth of Harry's free lunch. After buying a beer or cigar?

The halcyon days, the hectic nights. Have gone to come no more; The cockroach and the spider fight Upon the barroom floor.

The rail of brass is gone, alas! Likewise the sparkling wine; But we are told real beer is sold At 50 cents per stein.

TOUGH LUCK.

The Browns jumped all the way from Philadelphia to Cleveland to get trimmed. The shops in Philadelphia don't open on Sunday.

The Indians, who have no scruples about lifting scalps on the Sabbath, accommodated them.

OLD STUFF.

London bridge is said to be falling down. We've been hearing that ever since we were born and don't place any too much credence in the story.

Tom Gibbons went to England in search of the golden fleece and got fished. Such are the fortunes of war.

John McGraw has been swinging the ax on some of his employees who have been making detours from the straight and narrow. Johnny intimates that the only place for bad actors is in the movies.

"Bavaria Holds Beer Drinking Championship."

The loser pays for the beer, we take it.

"Italy Approves Liquor Treaty With America."

The moon shines bright on Dago Hill. And all is still and all is still.

Inasmuch as the eighteenth amendment takes the "treat" out of treaty, it doesn't mean anything.

See where Lieut. Smith and Nelson broke the world's broad jump record.

CAMPAIGN SLOGANS.

"Day Dawns with Davis."

And rights for the masses: Graft ends with the reign Of the privileged classes.

"Day Dawns with Davis."

An inference subtle; But slogans won't save us. We claim in rebuttal.

"Spaniards Hept Moors."

Are those boys at it again? See where the sap-bucket of 1934 is battling for the full dinner pail of 1899. History may repeat itself if the saps fall for the sap-bucket.

KRAZY KAT—By HERRIMAN

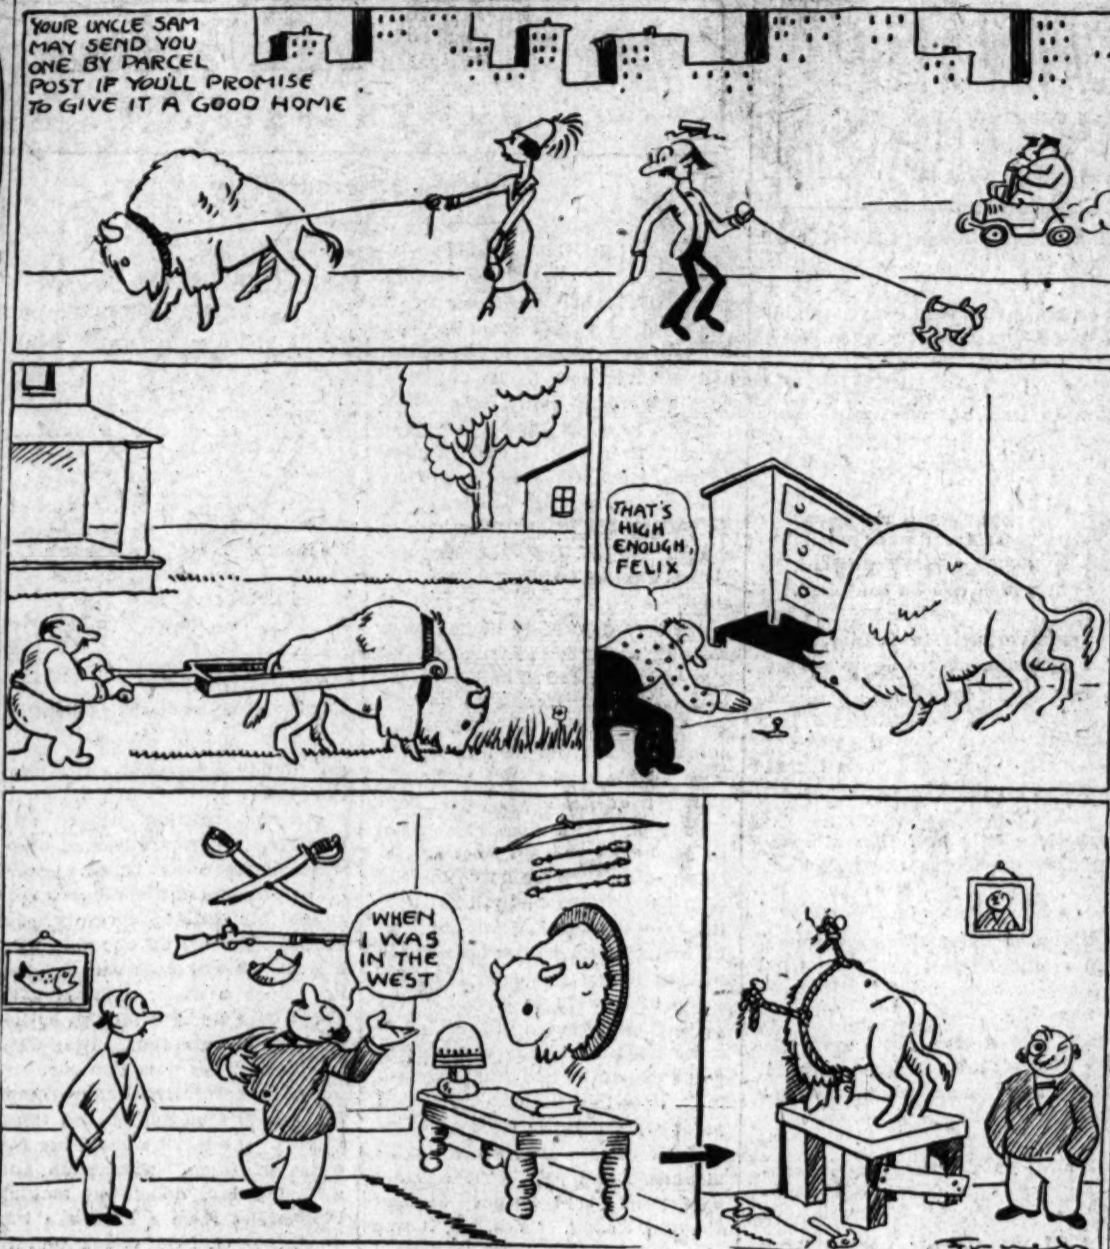

THE THOUGHTFUL BRIDEGROOM.

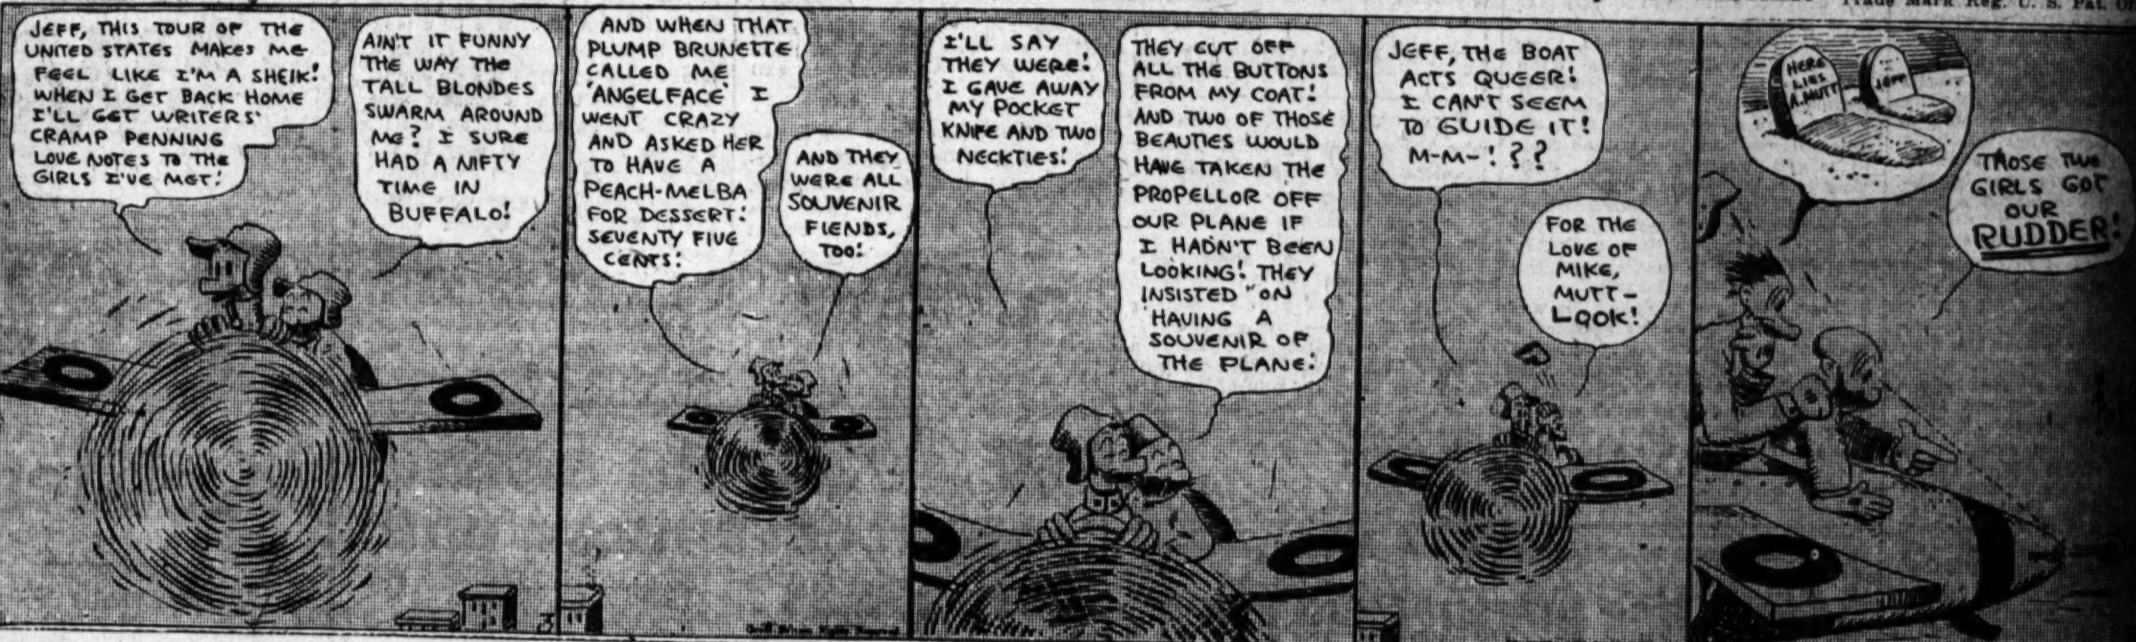

THE East Side couple had just been made one. He was a promising member of the Pearl Button Kid's gang. She was one of the belles of the Avenue C younger set. As the pair came forth from under the marriage canopy the bridegroom, with the air of having just remembered something of importance, halted the beginning of the march to the nearby hall where the wedding reception was to take place. He swung his bride about so that she faced him. He stood with her lips puckered expectantly. But he did not kiss her. He hauled off, the forehanded young husband, and dealt her a resounding wallop upon the point of the jaw.

JUDGE BEGINS TASK OF FIXING FATE OF LEOPOLD AND LOEB

In Seclusion of Private Home Near Chicago, He Will Consider Penalty for Next 12 Days.

COST OF CASE MORE THAN $350,000

Leopold, Joking About Being Hanged, Says He Will Have 'Jazz Band and Plenty of Hard Punch.'

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—In the retirement he will maintain for the next 12 days, Judge John R. Caverly today began consideration of the sentence he will impose Sept. 10 on Nathan Leopold Jr. and Richard Loeb, co-accused kidnapers and slayers of 14-year-old Robert Frank.

He had before him the nearly 3000-page record of the 23 days of testimony and argument in the judicial hearing which closed yesterday, in which the "lads" demanded the death penalty, and the defense pleaded for imprisonment, offering a theory of "mental sickness" in mitigation.

Go to Private Home. In a private home within 100 miles of Chicago, the jurist, occupying a dual role of judge and jury, will weigh the evidence and prepare a written opinion, explaining the reasons for the sentence he will pronounce.

Judge Caverly, after hearing the second case against the youths, the kidnapping charge, announced he would render judgment in both the murder and kidnapping cases at the same time.

Both crimes are punishable by death, with a minimum penalty of five years in prison for kidnapping for ransom, and 14 years for murder.

In the judgment of the Court, death, defense attorneys may ask for a new hearing on the ground that the defendants have become insane since the first hearing and sentence.

Would Prevent Demonstration. Before he left the bench, Judge Caverly announced he would admit only the defendants, their relatives and counsel, the State's attorneys and newspaper men to his courtroom when he fixes the fate of the youths.

Extra guards of policemen and deputies will bar all others. The precautions were taken, he said, not because of threatening letters he has received and which he attributed to cranks, but to prevent any demonstration.

He has requested other judges in the Criminal Courts building to delay convening the courts until after the judgment, a been passed. In the closing moments of the hearing yesterday, Judge Caverly ordered stricken from the record the remarks made by Robert E. Crowe, State's Attorney, at the close of his final summing-up argument and also to "take those who criticized the court and 'defeat of justice'."

Remarks Passed by Court. The prosecutor's remarks dealt with an alleged statement by Leopold, in which the slayer expressed the hope of escaping the noose "by pleading guilty before a friendly judge." Crowe declared the conduct of the defendants and their attorneys indicated that "if Leopold did not say he would plead guilty before a friendly judge, his actions have demonstrated he thinks he has one."

Judge Caverly called the prosecutor's words "a cowardly and dastardly assault upon the integrity of this court," and said they "could be used for no other purpose than to incite a mob and try to intimidate any such intentions. Relative criticism of 'delays of justice,' Judge Caverly pointed out that the defendants were arrested 19 days after the murder, indicted promptly and brought to trial within six weeks. He called the case "one of the swiftest trials of a criminal case ever heard in Cook County, in which the State has asked the death penalty." He commended the careful preparation of the case and the policy of the defense not seeking delay.

Estimated Cost of Hearing. An estimate of the cost of the hearing made at its conclusion showed it at more than $350,000. The State incurred about $18,000, while the defense will expend about $300,000. It was calculated. Most of the defense's costs are fees of attorneys and attorneys, the latter to be paid by the Chicago Bar Association.

While the public is showing unusual interest in the case, the penalty to be meted out will be decided by the court.

CAFE OWNER ALSO HELD IN $55,000 MAIL ROBBERY

Fred Hackethal, Proprietor of Padlocked Illinois Place, Accused of Part in Staunton Holdup.

OTHER WARRANTS HAVE BEEN ISSUED

"Red" Lanham, Business Agent of St. Louis Teamsters' Union, Also Under Arrest in Case.

The Oriole Cafe, Long Lake, Mitchell, Ill., is a fisherman's resort, but postoffice inspectors who searched it yesterday and arrested its proprietor, Fred Hackethal, believe it has had other uses. Two rifles, a shotgun and an automatic pistol were found there.

Hackethal was taken on a warrant charging him with active participation in a sensational holdup at Staunton, Ill., on May 28, 1933, in which $55,000 in currency was stolen by five men after the Postmaster and his assistant had been abducted. Charles (Red) Lanham, business agent of the St. Louis Teamsters' Union, was arrested here Wednesday on a similar charge.

Inspectors found the cafe doing business as usual although it had been padlocked by Federal Judge Fitzhugh for repeated violations of the Volstead Act. A sign on the padlocked door invited visitors to come to the rear door. Inspectors did this and found Hackethal, who was taken into custody. He was taken to the postoffice where he was held incommunicado. He was using only half of it.

Greets Inspector. "Hello Reuter," was the way Hackethal greeted Postoffice Inspector Reuter, in charge of the St. Louis office, although Reuter had never met Hackethal and did not recognize him. Hackethal added the arrest would cause him little annoyance, as "I can make a $10,000 head if necessary." He is being held at Edwardsville.

The resort was searched for loot, but so far as is known, none was found. Several automobiles, capable of great speed, were parked outside, some having licenses from Chicago and other Illinois points, as well as Missouri. The license numbers are being checked up to determine ownership.

Several other warrants for the Staunton robbery have been issued, but will not be made public until arrests are made.

$55,000 Payroll Stolen.

Postmaster Roberts and his money-order clerk, Harry Kuehn, returning in an automobile from the railroad depot to the post office, with a mail pouch containing $55,000 in payroll shipments from the St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank for mining companies, were fired upon by five men and forced to transfer the pouch to the robbers' car. Then, after being driven from Staunton to near Edwardsville, they were put out on the road, and the robbers rode away with their loot. Ray Ransard and Edward Linehan, Ransard gangster, were subsequently arrested as suspects, but released when they could not be identified.

Ransard is now in Atlanta prison for another crime and Linehan subsequently was assassinated by gangsters.

Improvement in Building Industry.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Improvement in conditions in the construction industry last month over July, 1933, were noted in a statement issued by the Commerce Department today to refute published reports of a construction slump. The value of contracts let in 26 states in July, the statement said, shows an increase of 10 per cent over that of a year ago, and total contracts let from Jan. 1 to the end of July showed a like gain over the same period of 1933. Practically all classes of construction contributed to the increase.

Woman Provides Free Drinks for Thirsty Horses

Deceitful horse enjoying an unexpected drink as result of equipment supplied by woman humane worker.

Miss Mary Mitchell Has Noticed Decrease in Public Fountains Since Advent of Prohibition Has Caused Animals to Suffer.

Consider the horse and its thirst. In the years B. P. (before prohibition) saloons were plentiful and the workaday horse seldom lacked a drink when it wanted one. It could stick its sweaty nose into the watering-trough outside the saloon and while its master went inside and stock his foot on the brass rail. Today, brass rails are antiques and watering troughs are mostly mirages. Before saloons became soft drink parlors, cafes, restaurants and delicatessens, there were 410 watering troughs in various parts of the city. Now, only a third of these remain and the majority of the survivors are as dry as the Ancient Mariner.

Statistics on past and present are supplied by Miss Mary Mitchell, 3702 West Pine boulevard, who has been active for many years in humanitarian work among animals. She noted that the sufferings of the thirsty animals, particularly horses, increased in proportion to the decrease in the number of drinking fountains. Her decision to do something to alleviate the suffering has resulted in installation of an unusual fountain service, adjacent to her home, on Spruill avenue, between West Pine and Lindell boulevards, a half block south of the Coronado Hotel.

A decrepit ash wagon creaked south on Spruill yesterday, as a Post-Dispatch reporter passed. The equally decrepit old horse pulling it was panting from the exertion and the heat. Plainly he needed a drink and plainly he expected none in such a saloonless neighborhood. The negro driver, however, spied a sign on a tree. Miss Mitchell had betted the sign and it read:

REICHTAG VOTES TO PUT DAWES PLAN IN OPERATION

In form to permit Government support were indicated by the Nationalists yesterday, in an effort to find a loophole which would enable them to vote for the Dawes plan bills without loss of prestige. One of these resolutions stipulates that the London pact shall only enter into force when international guarantees have been given Germany that the region not occupied by Versailles shall be evacuated by August, 1935. Another is to the effect that the London pact shall not be considered in force until the German Government has officially repudiated the admission of war guilt, contained in the treaty of Versailles. A third resolution would instruct the Government to demand, within two years, the re-examination of Germany's capacity to pay, the object being to reduce the obligation laid down in the Dawes plan.

Conference which brought about the final agreement took place between the leaders of the Nationalist party and Foreign Minister Stresemann, who has waged a fight in favor of the Dawes plan legislation.

Nationalists May Go in Cabinet. It was rumored in Reichstag circles that Stresemann promised the Nationalists admission to the present Government in return for the support needed to ratify the agreement.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Leaping in parachute from an army airplane that began falling 2500 feet above the Bolling Field today, Lieut. Leonidas L. Kuntz and Private Coggins of the Army Air Service escaped serious injury. The plane crashed, a wreck. The men jumped out when the engine went dead.

Killed in Garage Fire.

PERK, Ill., Aug. 28.—A. F. Maine of Rockport, Ill., was dead, and 45 automobiles were destroyed in a fire in the Elsie Motor Building at La Salle early today. The damage was estimated at about $125,000. Maine is believed to have been overcome by smoke and suffocated.

COMMITTEE TO TAKE UP REMUS' CHARGES N FALL

Senator Wheeler Indicates Bootlegger's Affidavit Will Be Ignored Until November Meeting.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—President Coolidge was called upon in a formal statement today by Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana to order a thorough hearing in the Department of Justice.

As the first step, Wheeler demanded that the President dismiss A. E. Sartain, Warden of the Atlanta Penitentiary, and "oust from office the remainder of the Daugherty gang."

Wheeler's demands were prompted by an affidavit said to have been made yesterday by George Remus, convicted bootlegger, members of the Daugherty committee, to a two-year sentence in the Atlanta penitentiary, charging that Henry Stern, an employee of the committee, had sought to get Remus to testify falsely against former Attorney-General Harry M. Daugherty.

Wheeler's statement is said to have been made yesterday by George Remus, convicted bootlegger, members of the Daugherty committee, to a two-year sentence in the Atlanta penitentiary, charging that Henry Stern, an employee of the committee, had sought to get Remus to testify falsely against former Attorney-General Harry M. FLYERS MAY TRY HOP TOMORROW FROM GREENLAND

Clearing Weather Indicates Americans Will Attempt to Reach Labrador in 572-Mile Flight.

ABOARD U. S. S. RICHMOND, AT ICE TICKLE, Labrador, Aug. 29.—Clearing weather today gave rise to the belief that the American Army flyers would attempt the hop from Ivigtut to Indian Harbor tomorrow.

Already the destroyers McFarland and Charles Ausburn have departed to take up their stations between Indian Harbor and Greenland. The cruiser Richmond, which will remain here to await the landing of the airmen on American shores, is planning to send its motor launch to meet the flyers and escort them to their landing place.

The Richmond is leaving nothing undone in the arrangements for receiving the flyers here. This morning a sort of dress rehearsal was held. Signal men were stationed at the lookouts to study the visibility across Hamilton Inlet. The information of the world flight planes will come. The cruiser's seaplane also will cruise over the islands on this end of the route.

Weather reports from each vessel will be transmitted by wireless to the U. S. S. Milwaukee at Ivigtut for the information of Lieut. Lowell Smith and his comrades before they take to the air.

As the planes proceed each vessel will inform the flyers by signals of the weather. When the planes proceed each vessel will inform the flyers by signals of the weather. When the planes proceed each vessel will inform the flyers by signals of the weather.

GEN. HINES SAYS PLAN FOR DEFENSE DAY IS NOT HOSTILE

Explains Preparations As in Thorough Harmony With "Our Desire for World Peace."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The War Department's defense day plans were explained today by Major-General John L. Hines, designated to succeed Gen. Pershing in the office of Chief of Staff of the Army, as in thorough harmony with "our desire for world peace."

"Our plans are not secret," he said in an address before a rally of representatives of patriotic and veteran's organizations, "we are not a militaristic nation, and our provisions for national defense are not offensive. They have no hostile object."

"We cherish the sound belief that our desire to be adequately prepared for the defense of our country and for the maintenance of the high principles of liberty and freedom on which our nation is founded, is thoroughly compatible with our desire for world peace."

"We have for the first time in our history a sound military policy, a policy intended to provide for adequate defense against aggression, with the minimum diversion of our economic effort and resources from the paths of commercial and industrial development. It is the policy of a peace-loving nation."

SUIT TO COLLECT WIDOW'S

SHARE IN $60,000 ESTATE

Mrs. Ellen Harper Boul of St. Louis Asks She Wed East St. Louis Realty Dealer in 1923. A suit asking a widow's share in the $60,000 estate of Benjamin J. Boul, East St. Louis real estate dealer, who died March 15, 1923, was filed in Circuit Court at Belleville yesterday by Mrs. Ellen Harper Boul of St. Louis.

The petition asserts that Boul married the plaintiff July 15, 1915, in St. Louis. Mrs. Magdalene Wess (Schubert), Boul's sister and his heir under a will, asserted she never heard her brother speak of marriage and never heard of the claimant.

The suit was filed through Thomas M. Webb, an East St. Louis attorney. He stated today that he did not know his client's address and knows nothing of the details of her claim.

GASOLINE PRICE WAR ON

Jefferson City Dealer Reduces Figure to 14.5 Cents a Gallon.

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 29.—The second cut in gasoline prices in Jefferson City in two days was made today by an independent dealer, bringing the price down to 14.5 cents a gallon, plus the one-cent city tax.

This dealer cut the price one cent yesterday afternoon and when the reduction was met by other dealers, he made a further cut today.

Farmers Cut Gasoline Prices.

By the Associated Press.

TYNDALL, S. D., Aug. 29.—The Bonhomme County Farm Bureau has placed gasoline on sale here at 17 cents a gallon—4 cents below that charged by other dealers. Action was taken by the farm bureau officials when they learned that gasoline was being sold at lower prices in other cities.

TWO HELD ON FRAUD CHARGE

Postal Inspectors Raid Offices of New York Concern.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Postal inspectors today raided offices of the Consolidated Credit organization, seized eight tons of literature and arrested Julius J. Klein, said to be president of the concern, and Archie Hartman, a clerk. Klein was held in $5000 bail and Hartman in $5000 for hearing Oct. 6 on mail fraud charges.

Other defendants named in the complaint are the Drug & Chemical organization, the Confectioners' Mercantile Agency and the General Food Products Credit Association. These are said to be subsidiary to the Consolidated. The complaint declares the defendants solicited accounts for collection from merchants and collected many accounts fraudulently.

Rocks Vocational Department.

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 29.—Miss Ella Moore, formerly an instructor in the Trenton High School, has been appointed supervisor of vocational home economics in the Department of Public Schools. State Superintendent Lee announced today.

NOELL'S BROTHER
TALKED TO WITNESS

His Deposition Offered by Defense in Suit to Suspend or Disbar Attorney.

Wilson A. Noell, who closely resembles his brother, Charles P. Noell, an attorney, in physical build, speech and dress, today testified it was he, and not Charles, who talked with a witness in a damage suit case the night before the witness left St. Louis, and thus forced a continuance in the trial.

The testimony was in a deposition offered by the defense in the suit of the St. Louis Bar Association to have Charles P. Noell suspended or disbarred from further legal practice, on the ground that he was guilty of malpractice in causing the witness to leave town.

The witness in question is Earl Fredericks, a switchman, who witnessed an accident in which another railroad worker was killed at Terre Haute, Ind. Charles P. Noell represented the dead man's estate in a damage suit against the Big Four Railroad. The railroad's complaint resulted in the present suit against Charles P. Noell.

Charles P. Noell testified yesterday that his brother visited Fredericks at the Pontiac Hotel, Dec. 18, last, to warn him against committing perjury, but denied he had induced him to leave town. Wilson A. Noell corroborated this today, his story being substantially as follows:

Wilson Noell, who had been residing in New York, arrived in St. Louis the afternoon of Dec. 18 and was met at Union Station by his brother, among others, and went to his brother's office, 383 Pierce building. The brother told of the damage suit then being tried before Circuit Judge Hall and, explaining that he had no other matters to look into, asked him to interview Fredericks.

By telephoning various hotels, Noell finally found Fredericks registered at the Pontiac and, going there, he called Fredericks on the side. Noell told Fredericks that Charles P. Noell had taken his (Fredericks') deposition in Terre Haute, when Fredericks had said he could not come to St. Louis and he asked why Fredericks had come.

"They made me come," Fredericks is quoted as saying. "A Deputy Sheriff took me out of my home and a railroad detective put me on that train. They want me to change my story—that deposition."

"You can't do that—you'll get sent up for perjury, if you do," Noell said he replied.

"I don't know what to do," Fredericks said. "They won't give me money to get home unless I lie. They're holding me prisoner right now."

Promised Not to Lie. Noell's reply to this, he testified, was that he might become a permanent prisoner in a penitentiary if he perjured himself. The conversation concluded with Fredericks swearing, "By God, I won't lie."

In view of the fact that a clerk at the Pontiac once identified Charles P. Noell as the caller on Fredericks, although the clerk has since testified he is not now sure who it was, counsel for the Bar Association questioned Wilson Noell about his appearance that night. He said he was wearing a medium gray suit, a light gray hat and an oxford gray overcoat, and his brother was wearing a gray suit, black hat and dark overcoat, he said.

Wilson A. Noell denied he had a mustache at that time, but admitted he had worn one before then and has subsequently. He is now without one.

Schooner Lost Captain in Storm. By the Associated Press. GLOUCESTER, Mass., Aug. 29.—A helpless hulk, the fishing schooner Dorcas of Gloucester, with her Captain missing, and with both masts, her dories, sails and all loose gear carried away by the storm that swept the coast yesterday, arrived at this port yesterday in tow of the Provincetown schooner Funchat. The nine remaining members of her crew told of having been buffeted by wind and sea from Tuesday morning until early Wednesday.

1700 DEAD FROM MENINGITIS. Epidemic in Japan Claims 876 Victims in 24 Hours. By the Associated Press. TOKIO, Aug. 29.—Total deaths from an epidemic from meningitis now sweeping Japan reached 1778 today, when 23 fatalities were listed at Kobe and one at Yokohama. In the last 24 hours 876 deaths from the disease have been reported, principally from Shikoku State.

Man With Three Pistols Slain. By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—The eighth victim of assassins in six weeks in "Little Italy" on the North Side, was shot to death on the stairs leading to his home early today. He was Frank Marotta, 30 years old. Marotta was armed with three loaded revolvers, but the slayers had shot him before he had a chance to use his weapons.

Baltic Sea Fish Growing Smaller. Correspondence of Associated Press. DANZIG, Aug. 10.—Baltic Sea fishermen declare that the fish of these waters are becoming smaller. It has been particularly among the herring and other fish caught this summer for the German and Baltic States markets. Scientists have begun an investigation to ascertain the cause of the shrinkage in size.

REMNANTS OF QUANTRILL'S
BAND GATHER IN REUNION

Less Than Dozen Survivors of Civil War Terror Meet in Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 29.—Less than a dozen of the grizzled survivors of the Civil War terror, Quantrell's band, will hold their 27th annual reunion here today and Saturday. The number of the original band of guerrilla chiefs' bush-whackers of the days of North-South animosity has dwindled rapidly in the last ten years.

Some of those surviving will be unable to attend because of sickness or infirmities. Originally the band of hard-riding, straight-shooting champions of the Southern cause numbered 300.

The gathering this year, according to those familiar with certain of the white-haired veterans will be no different from the meetings which have taken place for 26 years.

Stolen Truck Recovered. Capt. Hoffmann and Special Officers Erb of the Wyoming Street Station, while driving about the district in a police automobile, yesterday afternoon, came upon an abandoned truck, which they identified as one reported stolen from a driver of the Progressive Metal Co., 1909 Olive street, at Twelfth boulevard and Clark avenue, less than a block from police headquarters, at about 10:30 a. m. The truck had contained 15 boxes of solder, valued at $1000, which were missing.

FURTHER STEPS IN NICKEL PLATE MERGER WILL BE HASTENED

Directors of Five Roads Have Now Approved Van Sweringen Combination.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—An official statement, giving all the terms and details of the proposed merging of the Nickel Plate system with four other railroads, into one large system, is expected to be issued at once on behalf of O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen of Cleveland, who directed the merger. It will be the second major consolidation under the transportation act of 1920. The issuance of this statement, it was pointed out, was made possible by the action taken by directors of the Pere Marquette Railway, in approving the terms of the merger at a special meeting yesterday. The five railroads included in the combination to take official action on the proposed consolidation. In addition to the Nickel Plate, the consolidated system will include the Erie Railroad, the Chesapeake & Ohio, the Hoeking Valley and the Pere Marquette.

It was stated yesterday that the machinery would be set in motion within the next few days, to get the approval of the stockholders and the Interstate Commerce Commission for the merger. Properties embracing more than 14,000 miles of tracks and sidings are included in the merger, while the actual investment in road and equipment exceeds $1,001,000,000. The value of leases and other assets brings the total up to $1,500,000,000.

CHINESE IS ARRESTED ON LAUNDRY SWINDLE CHARGE

Oriental Nabbed on Complaint of Countryman as He Was About to Board Train.

Detectives at Union Station last night arrested Ju Conn, 47 years old, a Chinese, of 5384 Easton avenue, as he was about to board a train for Seattle, bound for his homeland, with $173 in cash and $2748 in foreign drafts. The arrest was made on a complaint of Joeng Jock of 1212 North Taylor avenue, who asserted his countryman swindled him out of $1500.

Joeng Jock told the police he gave Ju Conn the money about five months ago to buy a laundry for him. Ju Conn failed to produce the laundry or return the money, he said.

Ju Conn refused to discuss the charge and was released on bond. Both men will be taken before the Circuit Attorney, who will seek to learn the details of the transaction.

PROPTCY ACTION AGAINST TONTRUP AND HIS FIRM

Creditors Allege He Transferred Certain Property With Intent to Defraud.

A voluntary petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday in Federal Court against George H. Tontrup and the Standard Equipment and Machinery Co., which he owns. Creditors who allege that Tontrup, intending to defraud, transferred his ownership of the automobile and 1840 Mrs. Kathryn Shotwell Ed-Tontrup.
The petitioners and the amount of claims are: Liberty Lumber Co., $425; Beck & Corbett Co., $145; St. Louis Machinery and Co., $174.
The Standard company manufactured small metal equipment for a car which was sold by National Safety Car and Equipment Co., a corporation of which Tontrup was president. A bankruptcy suit was filed against it last week.
Tontrup and his firm are now in Europe on honeymoon.

FIVE ARRESTS FOLLOW CONFESSION IN EAST ST. LOUIS

Men Are Held in Connection With Seven Holdups and Two Safe Robberies.

East St. Louis police yesterday arrested Arthur W. Chitwood Jr., charging that he participated with others in seven holdups and two safe robberies in East St. Louis in the last few months. Chitwood is 35 years old and gave his address as 2223 Kingshighway, Washington Park.

The information that caused Chitwood's arrest was given by another man who participated in one of the robberies and whose name is being withheld. Four others were arrested on information supplied by this man. They are: Sam Baker, a butcher of 431 Collinsville avenue; E. W. Cross, a switchman of Fairmont City; H. M. Staden, a crane man of 305 South Twenty-ninth street, Belleville, and R. Heck, a brakeman of 2740 Market avenue, East St. Louis.

SUES HIS DAUGHTER-IN-LAW

John O'Neill today filed suit at Clayton for $2577.20 damages from his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Elise O'Neil, whose divorce action against her husband, Laurence O'Neill, is before the St. Louis Court of Appeals.

He contends that his costs were equal to the amount he is suing for in getting legal possession of the home of his son at 6644 Westman avenue, which he had bought at auction, but which Mrs. O'Neill refused to relinquish. Last Monday Circuit Judge McElhinney dismissed a suit brought by Mrs. O'Neill against her father-in-law and husband, charging that the purchasing at auction of her husband's home by his father was an effort to prevent her obtaining her proper settlement.

Missing Peddler Reported Slain, By the Associated Press.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Aug. 23.—State Rangers and officers are searching the territory between Mission and the Rio Grande for Meyer Redman, Jewish peddler, of Houston, who disappeared from Mission two weeks ago. Two men are being held on suspicion, in connection with his disappearance. An automobile which belonged to Redman has been found in the river at Tabasco Crossing. It had been stripped of all movable parts. One of the men held told a story of a shooting by a Mexican who has returned to Mexico.

Fire at Hospital in Illinois, By the Associated Press.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Aug. 23.—Fire of undetermined origin broke out in a large barn at the Jacksonville State Hospital and burned several adjoining buildings before it was controlled, early today. The loss is estimated at $50,000. Firemen and employees worked under difficulty to remove the stock. Two animals perished and several tons of hay and a large amount of farm implements were destroyed.

A NEW STORE INVITES YOU!

STROLL down Olive Street some time Saturday and see the New Store we have created for the well-dressed men of St. Louis. "Seven-O-Nine" is the number on OLIVE STREET—and you'll know it by the front pictured above.

It's chiefly a Young Man's Store—combining something of the exclusiveness of the custom-tailor establishment with the ground-floor accessibility and convenience of a high-grade Ready-to-Wear Shop.

To make it worth your while, in a practical way, to inspect our place, we have taken a group of our very finest New Fall SUITS and OVERCOATS and have marked them at special Opening Day Prices—principally $29.50 and $34.50.

Most of these garments are the famous "GGG" Clothes, in the originated fabrics known as Huddersfield stripes and Huddersfield overchecks. The exclusive "GGG Gamefeather Shades," and "GGG Grays" are special features among the new Fall colors.

There is nothing quite like this NEW STORE of ours anywhere in the city. It fills the need of men for absolutely latest styles of metropolitan character—developed in fabrics and colorings which are not to be seen on every street corner. Yet the range of prices will be deservedly popular with the great majority of well-dressed men.

FARMERS' OUTLOOK REPORTED BRIGHTER

Government Says Exchange Value of Products Is Working Toward Pre-war Parity.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The financial position of farmers as measured by the exchange value of their products for nonagricultural commodities, is gradually working toward a pre-war parity, according to the agricultural review issued yesterday by the Department of Agriculture.

As a result of the recent rise in grain prices and the fall in prices of nonagricultural products, the combined exchange value of 16 leading farm products for the other class of commodities on Aug. 1 had an index rating of 83, taking the 1913 base as 100. This was said to have been the highest point reached in 47 months.

Discussing the general agricultural outlook in this country, the department called attention that interest now is beginning to center on corn and hogs.

"Despite increased corn acreage this year," the review said, "weather conditions have cut the prospective crop considerably under the 1935 production and should there be an early frost a serious shortage of corn will result. A short corn crop means high corn prices and inasmuch as approximately 85 per cent of the corn crop is fed on livestock, mainly to hogs, high cost of hog production will result."

"The swine is said to be well along in its periodic liquidation, with prices beginning to rise, and any further liquidation of breeding stock because of expensive corn is expected to send hog prices to materially higher points during the coming year."

"Cotton looks like the biggest crop with the biggest income in five years. Potatoes and fruit are reported on the way to good crops and apparently fairly good prices. There is plenty of hay and oats are turning out a splendid yield practically everywhere. Land is now being fitted for sowing of fall wheat, with some sentiment reported in favor of a larger acreage than last year."

NEGRO REALTY MAN RELEASED

George H. Hutchinson, a negro real estate dealer of 3148 Pine street, who was arrested Tuesday for investigation following his report that robbers had broken into his office and carried away $1600 early Sunday morning, was released yesterday, and the case was dropped.

PLAYGROUND SUIT IS SUBMITTED TO COURT

Judge Calhoun to Pass on Validity of Apparatus Contract
Next Tuesday

The suit of 12 citizens to restrain the Board of Education from accepting playground apparatus furnished under a contract with F. J.
Feineman, 304 Pine street, was taken under advisement yesterday by Circuit Judge Calhoun, who will announce his decision Tuesday.

In the petition it was alleged Feineman had not complied with specifications governing the work which he obtained in competitive bidding with two others at a price of $24,377. The testimony showed that R. M. Milligan, Building Commissioner of the board, had notified Feineman that the apparatus would not be approved until certain defects were remedied. Milligan admitted that after the contract was signed he ordered certain deviations from the specifications.

Argument for Petitioners.
William F. Fahey, attorney for the petitioners, argued that the changes were a plain evasion of the statute, as many of the articles substituted were not considered in the competitive bidding. Milligan said he ordered alterations and substitutions after concluding such changes were necessary. In all contracts provision for abatements from original specifications is made, he said.

Glendy B. Arnold, representing the defense, declared the suit was instigated by disappointed bidders.
Several of the petitioners being employes of the Modart Manufacturing Co., one of the unsuccessful bidders. Philip Medart, vice president of the company, testified the variations allowed meant an additional profit of $1800 in favor of the contractor. Arnold contended the contract permits the Board of Education to take advantage of any reduction.

Rodow Abeken, Public Playgrounds Director, testified he inspected some of the material and found it was not up to specifications. He so notified Commissioner Milligan, who then served formal notice on the contractor. Abeken said that on his advice Milligan changed the specifications calling for oak "one-inch" planks to fir wood. Testimony showed this change meant a difference of $200,
oak costing more than fir wood.

Case Under Advisement.
In taking the case under advisement
Judge Calhoun said he wanted to consider the question of "bad faith" on the part of Commissioner Milligan in changing the specifications. Arnold said there was no change in the petition of any "bad faith." The judge replied that he was not confined to what the petition charged.

PASADENA, Cal., Aug. 29.—Three hundred million dollars is spent annually on funeral expenses for the 1,500,000 persons who die every year in this country, according to figures given out by J. N. Stetten, executive secretary of the National Organization of Funeral Directors, before the convention of the California Association of Funeral Directors here. He said there were 38,000 funeral directors and 350 manufacturers of caskets and undertakers' supplies in the United States.

SLAIN HOLDUP MAN IDENTIFIED BY HIS FATHER

Youth Shot by Detective Sergeant Girard Was Oliver Philip Kessel, an Electrician.

The body of the robber killed Wednesday night while attempting to hold up Detective Sergeant Paul Girard at Tracy road and the Wash tracks, which lay in the morgue unclaimed yesterday, was identified last night by Theodore Kessel, 5955 Sherry avenue, as that of his son, Oliver Philip Kessel, 22 years old, an electrician.

A coroner's verdict of justifiable homicide by a police officer in performance of his duty was returned at the inquest today. The jury reached the verdict without leaving the box, following a reading of the police report and testimony of Detective Girard.

Until two weeks ago, young Kessel was employed by the Western Electric Co. as a cable man. The elder Kessel is a manufacturer of mathematical instruments with a plant at 922 North Broadway.

After viewing the body, the father visited the Detective Bureau in indignation, charging the whole truth concerning the killing. Had not been told and threatening to take legal action. He was advised by Detective Sergeant Aylward to take his complaint to the Circuit Attorney. When asked how he had come to visit the morgue to see if the body was that of his son, he explained his investigation resulted from a suggestion made by Fred Bockstiegel, 31 of 5118 Theodosia avenue.

Summonsed Through Neighbor. A neighbor told him yesterday afternoon, Kessel said, that a young man wanted to see him at Kings highway and Sherry avenue. At the appointed place Bockstiegel appeared and inquired if he had "read it in the paper."

"Read what?" Kessel inquired. "About the killing of that robber. I went to the morgue and he looks like your son."

Bockstiegel, arrested for investigation, denied any connection with the attempted holdup. He is being held pending further inquiry. Kessel declared his son had been at home at 7:45 o'clock the night of the killing and left shortly afterward to join some other youths in the neighborhood. He had not been working for the last two weeks, the father said, because of injuries suffered recently in an automobile accident. Since that time, Kessel related, he had seemed restless and sometimes got up at midnight and went out. The Kessels have two other children, one of whom, Helen, 18, underwent an operation for appendicitis last night at the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium and is said to be in a serious condition.

Police Record of Stain Youth. Kessel denied his son ever had been arrested except for speeding, but police records show two other arrests. November 5, 1922, he and a companion were taken into custody when found trying to start an automobile belonging to John T. Hart, 4224 West Florissant avenue, while it was parked at Taylor avenue and Washington boulevard. Physicians at the City Hospital said they had been drinking and they were later released when Hart refused to prosecute. Young Kessel was again arrested on July 12 last, two hours after Samuel Zece, 2744 Russell avenue, and Mrs. Zece were held up by two young men near Florissant and robbed of their automobile, $23 and a watch. Mr. and Mrs. Zece had taken a street car back to the city and had reported the robbery to Detective William A. Schneider of the Mounted District on Florissant avenue. The policeman went to a nearby patrol box to telephone the report to headquarters when he saw a No. 4 automobile, similar to the one taken from Zece, approaching. He halted the car and arrested the occupants, one of whom was young Kessel. Zece identified the car as his own but was unable to identify the men. They were later released on their story that three men had turned the machine over to them with instructions to drive it to Union boulevard and West Florissant avenue and wait for them.

Circumstances of Killing. The killing of young Kessel by Detective Girard followed an investigation by the officer of recent holdups reported in the vicinity of a new subdivision on Kingshighway Northwest. Girard, in plain clothes, was driving his automobile through the weed-grown section Wednesday night and had stopped near the Wash tracks for a moment when the holdup man pressed a revolver against his shoulder and commanded: "Put 'em up, brother." In elevating his hands, Girard managed to draw his own revolver and, whirling, fired in the robber's face. The man was dead when an ambulance summoned to the scene, arrived with him at the city hospital.

Irene Kessel, 16, sister of the dead man, said today that her brother formerly had worked for the Rice-Ritz Dry Goods Co. and had been presented with a ring by his employers for efficient service. Recently, she said, he had been contemplating opening an electrical shop of his own.

SENATOR CARTER GLASS ILL

By the Associated Press. LYNCHBURG, Va., Aug. 29.—Senator Carter Glass is confined to his bed at his country home, Montevue Farms, near here, suffering with erysipelas. His physician said it would be several weeks before Senator Glass would be able to attend to any business or political matters.

After the Democratic national convention in New York, during which he was a candidate for the presidential nomination, Senator Glass was said to have required a rest, but he was able to attend the notification exercises for John W. Davis. Almost immediately thereafter, however, he retired to his country home.

FOUND DEAD WITH SUITOR

Parents of Milwaukee Girl Doubt Suicide Pact Note.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 22.—Rhoda Gemeinhardt, 17-year-old Milwaukee girl, who, with Hermann Witt, 41 years old, was found shot to death in Witt's automobile, near Ripon, Wis., yesterday, was abducted and then slain by her suitor because of her rejection of his marriage proposal, the dead girl's relatives declare.

In spite of Witt's suicide note, intimating a death pact, the girl's parents said that she had promised, before going on the fatal ride, to end her affair with Witt and never see him again. Harry Gemeinhardt, her father, had employed private detectives, who produced proof that Witt had served a prison term for larceny and had a divorced wife and three children living in Ripon.

MAN, HURT IN AUTO MISHAP, DIES OF HEART DISEASE

Richard Shores, 52, Was Not Fatally Injured in Accident, Post Mortem Examination Shows.

The death of Richard Shores, 52 years old, a switchman, at his home, 2505 University street, yesterday, was caused by heart disease and not by injuries received the night of Aug. 7, when he drove his automobile into a car parked in front of 2523 Bremen avenue, and owned by Walter F. Pfaff, 3602 North Nineteenth street.

Shores was treated at city hospital for lacerations of the lips and allowed to go home. He became seriously ill on Aug. 12 and complained of internal pain. Results of a post mortem examination, made public today, at the inquest, showed he died from natural causes.

WANT JEWELRY TAX-FREE

National Convention Resolution Asks Removal of All Levies.

A resolution seeking the removal of the 5 per cent luxury tax levied on jewelry sales in excess of $30, was passed yesterday by the American National Association of Retail Jewelers, the five-day convention terminating at Hotel Statler today. On July 3 last a provision of the new tax law became effective which removed the tax on jewelry purchases up to $30 and watches up to the value of $60. The jewelers will seek to have Congress remove all tax upon jewelry sales.

HUNT SHEEP-KILLING BEARS

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

HUSUM, Wash., Aug. 22.—Sheepmen in the Mt. Adams country have declared war on black bears. These animals are worse, say sheep owners, than coyotes. It is estimated that more than 500 lambs have fallen victims this summer to sheep-killing bears, while fewer than 100 killings are blamed to the coyotes. The reason coyotes have failed to live up to their reputations, it is said, lies in the fact that most of the flocks are corraled at night when these predatory animals slay. With bears, daylight is not discouraging. Ranchers are organizing parties to search the wilderness slopes of Mt. Adams in quest of bears.

Former California Governor Dies. By the Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, Aug. 22.—Henry T. Gage, 72 years old, former

Governor of California, died at his home here last night. He was an outstanding figure in California politics a quarter of a century ago. A native of New York, he began the practice of law in Los Angeles in 1887. After taking an active part in Southern California politics for a number of years, he was elected Governor in 1889 and served until 1903. After relinquishing the Governorship, Mr. Gage spent two years in Europe as United States Minister to Portugal.

REPORTED SLAIN BY SAVAGES

Heart of a Christian.

By the Associated Press. MANILA, Aug. 22.—A wandering band of Negritos in the Zambales mountains kidnapped Atanacio Blanco, Christian Filipino, tortured him for seven days and then killed him, eating his heart and liver, says a story printed in El Debate, Spanish newspaper here. Blanco, the story says, attempted to sell a pig to the Negritos, but instead of purchasing, they carried him captive to their village. His torture and death followed. Some of Blanco's bones are said to have been taken to the headquarters of the constabulary in Zambales province.

Catholic Hospital Conferences.

KILLS NEGRO SLAYER

Who Shot Sheriff Is Tracked by Bloodhounds.

NEWPORT, La., Aug. 22.—Country-wide search for John Gentry, 15-year-old negro, who shot Sheriff Tom Gendron abruptly yesterday after bloodhounds had discovered his hiding place in a lumber house at Kurthwood, La., the negro met the posse in the open. Gentry emerged from his hiding with a pistol in his hand and shooting at his pursuers. Immediately he was greeted by a fusillade and fell dead, his body riddled with bullets.

Discovery and killing of the youth came just a few hours after Sheriff Gentry had been shot in the chest by one of his wounds in an Alexander

SAYS SENTIMENT FOR LA FOLLETTE IS GAINING HERE

Head of German-American Alliance Announces Members Are for Independent After Conference.

VISIT TO DAWES PROMPTS MEETING

President Reiterates Belief Association Will Swing 50,000 Votes in St. Louis to Candidate.

Sentiment among German-Americans in St. Louis for the La Follette-Wheeler Independent Progressive presidential ticket is growing steadily. August Lingensfelder, president of the German-American Citizens' Alliance, said today, following a conference last night of members of the alliance.

The conference, he said, considered the report that a delegation of St. Louis Republicans had been in Chicago Wednesday and while there advised Gen. Charles G. Dawes, the party's presidential nominee, and Roy O. West, secretary to Chairman Butler of the Republican National Committee, that German-Americans here would not desert the Republican party for La Follette in any congressional numbers.

Says Sentiment Is Growing. "We found, at the conference last night, that sentiment for La Follette and Wheeler is growing steadily and has increased considerably since the alliance formally endorsed the Independent National ticket in a resolution on Aug. 12," Lingensfelder said.

"Everywhere among the German-Americans we find a desire for a new deal in National politics. They are tired of the old parties and feel that the La Follette-Wheeler ticket will best represent their own ideas in government."

"The gentlemen who are reported to have gone to Chicago certainly know of the La Follette sentiment among the German-Americans here. But they are politicians and they must say something."

Lingensfelder said he had received no information which would cause him to change his estimate, made two weeks ago, that the alliance recommendation would swing 50,000 votes to La Follette in St. Louis, mostly from the Republican party.

Has 20,000 Members. The alliance is composed of representatives from 100 St. Louis German societies having 20,000 members. Lingensfelder expects hundreds of members to vote as they go.

Members of the St. Louis delegation to Chicago Wednesday were: Edward W. Forstet, attorney and political ally of City Collector Kossin, South Side Republican leader, where most of the German-Americans reside; Theodore F. Lange, president of the Louis Lange Publishing Co., which prints a number of German language publications; Joseph J. Hauser, former president of Central Trades and Labor Union and A. H. Bauer, broker.

Forstet, as spokesman for the delegation, said yesterday the reported defections of German-Americans here was discussed incidentally in Chicago and that the delegates refused to concede that La Follette would make serious inroads on the Republican vote here.

He told yesterday, however, the conference resulted from suggestions of Gen. Hyde and Congressman Newton, who had mentioned the local situation during recent visits to Chicago headquarters of the Republican committee.

La Follette Workers to Start Active Campaign Here Next Week. Practical work of the St. Louis campaign for the La Follette-Wheeler Independent Progressive presidential ticket will begin next week. Organizations will be built up in each of the 28 wards and will then be extended into the voting precincts of the wards.

Plans for this work will be announced tomorrow night at a general meeting at Eagle Hall, Lafayette and Jefferson avenues. Approximately 700 organizations and individuals have been invited to send representatives to the meeting.

ROBBERS GOT $6000 FOR $100,000 THEFT

Police Seek "Master Mind" After Chauffeur's Actress-Wife
Confesses Gem Holdup.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Dorothy Burns, 23 years old, a former burlesque actress, after throwing $4500 in the face of detectives, sobbed a confession, which her captives declared, solved one of the biggest and most daring gem thefts in the history of the city.

Today the young woman is under arrest, with her husband, James J. Burns, 29-year-old chauffeur; Harry Chance, another chauffeur, and Mark Wolen, a jeweler, all charged with having robbed the shop of Alexander Feldenhimer, of $100,000 in jewels last Thursday.

The actress-wife's mother, Mrs. Freda Frost, also is in custody. Detectives who investigated her older-sister establishment, while searching for the daughter, alleged they found liquor, blackjacks and other weapons.

"Master Mind" at Large.
A sixth person remains at large. It is the man, unknown to and unseen by the actual robbers who, according to Mrs. Burns' alleged confession, directed the robbery from behind the scenes, received the $100,000 worth of gems through a "fence" and paid the perpetrators of the theft $6000 for the job.

A private detective in the employ of Lloyd's of London was credited with developing the clues which led to the arrests and the subsequent confessions. He, with local police officials in plain clothes, invaded Mrs. Frost's obscure refreshment place yesterday.

They found Dorothy at a table with her husband and Chance, drinking cider. They charged the trio with the robbery and ordered them to "come along."

Jeweler Identifies Perpetrators.
The men related, vehemently denying knowing anything about the $100,000 worth of gems, but Mrs. Burns, dramatically drawing $4500 from a large purse, flung the currency at the officers and confessed.

Later after Feldenhimer, the jeweler, had identified Burns and Chance, as those who held him up, the two prisoners confirmed the young woman's confession and added information which led to the identity and arrest of Wolen as the "Red-headed Fellow," who, at the command of the "Master Mind," had directed the robbers' operations as they invaded the jewelry shop.

MOVING OF BIG STATUES FROM VERSAILLES TO COST $53,000

PARIS, Aug. 22.—Nearly a million francs of the million dollars given by John D. Rockefeller Jr. for the restoration of the Cathedral of Rheims and the Palace of Versailles and Fontainebleau will be required to remove the gigantic statues that line the Court of Honor leading to the main entrance to the Chateau de Versailles.

Every visitor to the palace has remarked these figures, which represent men noted in the history of France, Condé, Turenne, Richelieu, Du Guesclin and Bayard among them, and most have wondered why they should be there, as they evidently do not fall in with the scheme of things. They were originally made for the Concorde bridge in Paris, but their exaggerated dimensions dwarfed the bridge to such an extent that King Louis Philippe had them moved to Versailles, thinking, no doubt, that nothing could dwarf that mighty work, but they were huge enough even for that.

Only the expense has prevented their removal years ago so that advantage has been quickly taken of Rockefeller's generosity to carry out the long wished for improvement even at a cost of $50,000 ($52,110).

POSTAGE RATES REDUCED

Special Order in the Post-Dispatch and the STOCKHOLM, Aug. 22.—The eighth universal postal congress, which adjourns today to meet again in London in 1928, signed conventions reducing postage to pre-war rates and lowering newspaper rates from two ounces for a cent to four ounces for a cent.

The new rates will become effective Oct. 1, 1925. Rates for first-class matter in the United States are not affected, as the United States is practically the only country which failed to avail itself of the 100 per cent increase authorized by the postal congress at Madrid in 1920. The reductions in postage are made possible by agreements signed by 27 countries. Joseph Stewart, executive assistant to Postmaster-General New, who headed the American delegation, said the "lowered newspaper rates will help American newspapers, which give their readers daily issues of many pages, to extend their circulation in foreign countries." The Irish Free State and Soviet Russia were admitted to membership in the union.

American Hogs for China

WINNEMOCCA, Nev., Aug. 23.—Cheng Ching, 78 years old, having amassed a small fortune from a restaurant where he sold ham and bacon cured by himself, has sold out and is going to Shanghai to start a packing plant. He has arranged with exporters to have hogs shipped from the United States. Cheng says he was the first Chinese to be here in the city of San Francisco.

ALASKA REINDEER HERDS SO BIG OWNERS FACE RUIN

Preparations to Develop Tasse for Meat Necessary for Building Up Industry.

NOME, Alaska, Aug. 5.—Extensive preparations have been made to place Alaska's reindeer industry this fall on a par with fox-raising, mining, fishing and sheep-raising in the territory, according to Carl J. Lomen, president of a trading corporation.

Lomen explained that despite the fact that many natives are very wealthy on paper, due to their large reindeer herds, they are nearly starving. The herds have increased to a point where they must be depleted. The one sure way, without waste, is to cultivate a taste for reindeer meat, not only throughout Alaska, but in the United States and in foreign countries.

APPLY TO WHEELER MANAGER

Over Until After Election.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Aug. 23.—United States District Attorney John L. Slattery has issued the following statement: "I observe the press dispatch of yesterday, in which Congressman John M. Wheeler, national manager of the La Follette-Wheeler campaign, says that my action in arraigning Senator Wheeler on Sept. 1 is a clear indication that the Department of Judicial of the bringing of his action. "There is no action of the Department of Justice in the matter of the arrest of Senator Wheeler. The action was taken by the United States District Attorney, John L. Slattery, on the basis of the evidence presented to him by the La Follette-Wheeler campaign, and the action was taken in the interest of the public safety."

WHEELER MANAGER

Willing for Trial to Go Over Utah After Election.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Aug. 29.—United States District Attorney John L. Slattery has issued the following statement: "I observe the press dispatch of yesterday, in which Congressman John M. Nelson, national manager of the La Follette-Wheeler campaign, says that any action in arraignment Senator Wheeler on Sept. 1 is a clear indication that the Department of Justice is to be used as an adjunct of the Republican National Committee in this campaign . . . by bringing him to trial in the midst of his campaign.

"There is absolutely no foundation for Mr. Nelson's statement. Politics has in no way entered into this case from the Government's side. I am perfectly willing that both the arraignment and the trial of Senator Wheeler shall go over until the next term of court here, which will not be until after the November election has passed into history."

IN WRECK IN INDIA

Fifty-Three Others Seriously Injured in Collision of Passenger Trains.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 29.—More than 100 persons were killed or injured in a collision of two passenger trains near La Hore, British India, according to an agency dispatch quoting incomplete reports received in La Hore.

Sixty-seven bodies were discovered in the wreckage and it was believed more than 20 bodies remained among the debris. Fifty-three persons were seriously injured and 49 slightly injured.

A BRIDGE-PLAYING MOTHER AND HER CURIOUS REQUEST

Left Baby Beside Phone With Receiver Off and Asked to Be Called if It Ringed.

Many curious requests are received from time to time by telephone operators, but an exceptional one is recounted in a report received at Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. headquarters here from J. C. Sigler, district manager at Chillicothe, Mo.

"The queerest demand ever received in the office," Sigler writes, "was that made by a woman subscriber who called the operator and informed her that she had put the baby to sleep in a baby buggy near the telephone, and would leave the receiver off the hook."

"I'm going out to play bridge," she said, and gave the telephone number of a neighbor's home where she might be found. If the baby wakes up and cries would you mind calling me?"

"The telephone girl politely but firmly answered that this was a special service that the telephone company was not prepared to give.

"We have other unusual experiences that the public seldom hears about. Often a child will call the operator and ask to speak to 'daddy.' The operator will almost invariably ask the child its name and try to complete the call, but as a general rule the youngsters cannot give the name of the father."

COUZENS DEFERS TAX INQUIRY, PLEASES COOLIDGE MANAGERS

Michigan Senator Was to Have Begun Revenue Bureau Investigation Sept. 2.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Senator Couzens, of Michigan, who, after being one of the thorns in the side of the Coolidge administration during his term in the Senate, finally announced his support of the President, apparently intends to go the whole way.

One of the worries of the Republican campaign was that the investigation of the Internal Revenue Bureau, which Senator Couzens proposed, was scheduled to start Sept. 2. Senator Couzens today notified his office here that it will be impossible for the committee to assemble on that date, and that he was unable to fix a definite date for it. When Couzens engaged Francis Heney to undertake the investigation of Secretary Mellon for this committee the President wrote an indignant message to the Senate about it, backing up Mellon, who said the Treasury was being demoralized by the investigation. The investigation was ordered to proceed with another inquirer engaged by the committee. Republican managers did not like the idea of having a Senate investigation making a target of the Secretary of the Treasury and his department after Coolidge's speech of acceptance, wherein the President declared that, not since Hamilton's time, had there been so efficient and skillful an administration of the country's finances. It is, of course, possible for Couzens to convene the committee before the campaign is over. He is a candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination, the primaries for which come early in September. It may be that the results of this primary may determine whether the investigation goes on or not.

ARKANSAS PUTS 16 WOMEN IN PUBLIC OFFICE

Equal Suffrage Results in Selection of Three to Sit in State Legislature.

ALICE CORDELL ON NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Eight Are Made County
Treasurers, Three County
Clerks and One Circuit
Clerk.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—That women are becoming a factor in politics in Arkansas is evident from the fact that 16 women were nominated to State or county offices in the primary held Aug. 12. Nomination of the Democratic ticket in Arkansas is equivalent to election.

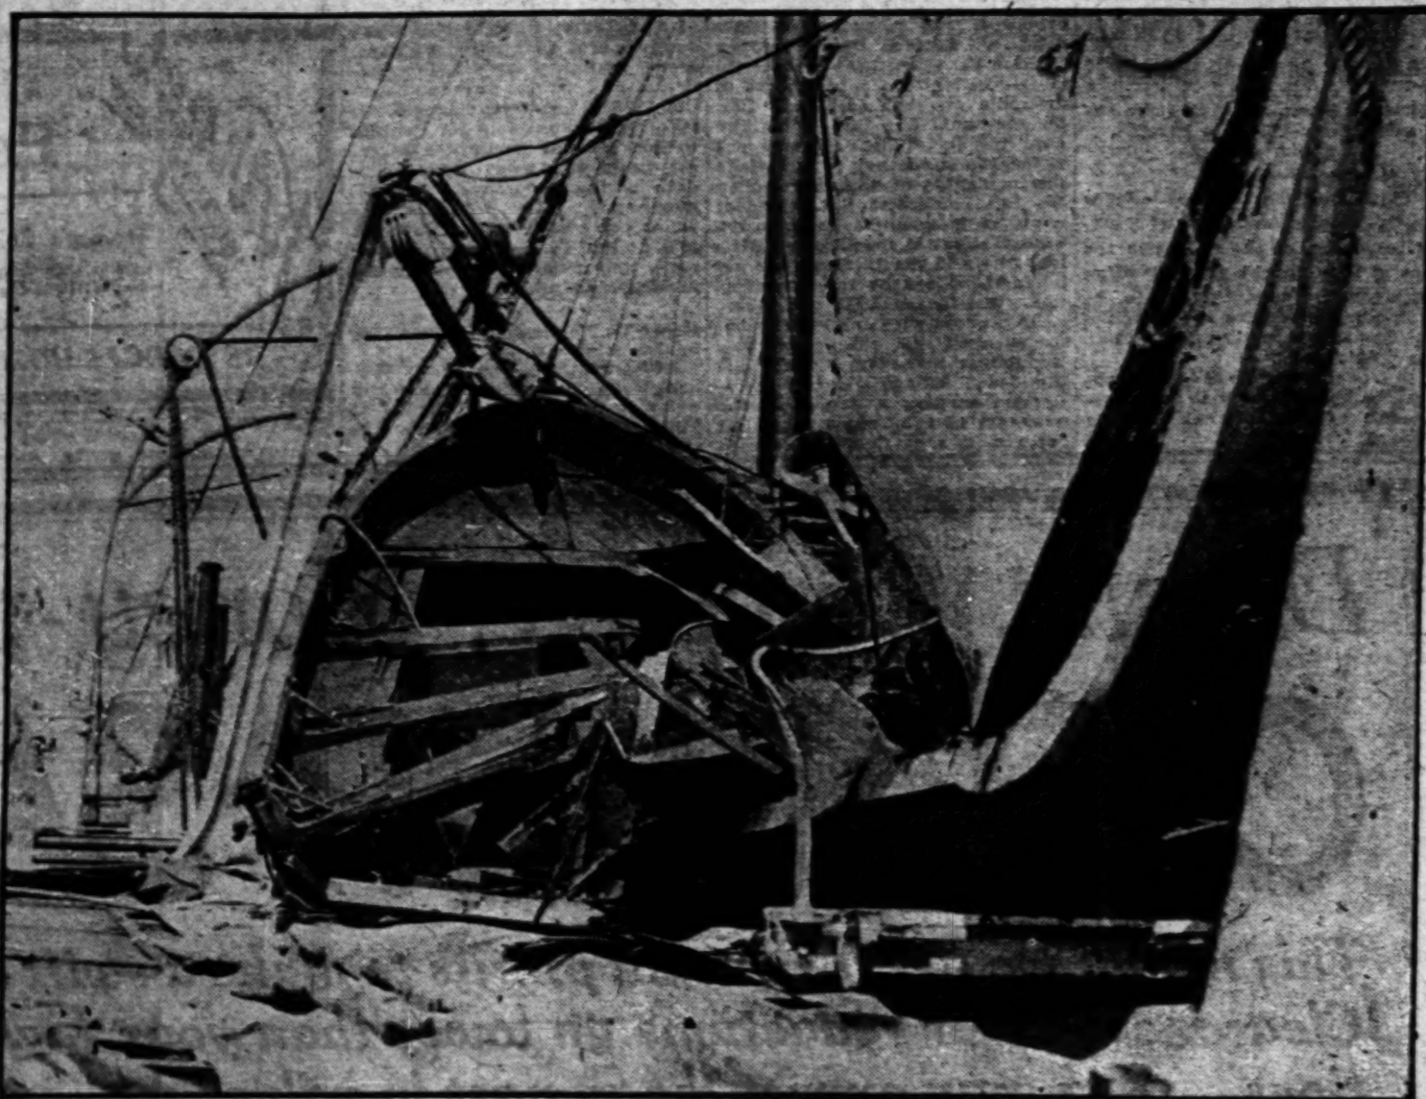

Miss Alice Cordell of El Dorado was nominated the first national Democratic committeewoman in the history of the State. Miss Cordell is a former school teacher, a pioneer suffrage worker in her native state, her parents being old settlers of Union County. Miss Cordell managed her large farm near El Dorado and when the oil boom opened became an operator in leases, in which she has been very successful. She has served as a member of the Democratic State Central Committee and was one of the eight delegates at large to attend the recent Democratic national convention in New York.

Woman Lawyer a Legislator.
Miss Eric Chambers, Little Rock, who led the ticket in Pulaski County for a second term in the Legislature, is an outstanding figure among the women of the State. She has been successively a school teacher, stenographer, confidential secretary to one of the best known legal firms of the State, and was the first woman to graduate from the law department of the University of Arkansas. At that time laws of the State did not permit women to practice, a law which was not corrected until seven years later.

Miss Chambers did post-graduate work in Chicago University and took up social service work, returning to Little Rock to serve as chief probation officer from 1913 to 1917, where her pioneer service in awakening the State to the needs of such work is still bearing fruit. With the probation officer of Pine Bluff, Miss Chambers worked for the passage of the bill creating the Arkansas Girls' Industrial School, and moving the Boys' Industrial School to a better location and removing it from the management of the Penitentiary Board. The bill, voted by Gov. Hays in 1915 was reenacted in 1917, and approved by Gov. Brough.

Miss Chambers was active in the organization of the Little Rock Boys' Club during these years. The club now has several hundred members and recently purchased a clubhouse at a cost of $46,000. Miss Chambers fought for two years to finance the club in its infancy—it is now recognized as a great community achievement for good.

Active in Social Service.
In 1917 she became field secretary of the Arkansas Tuberculosis Association and in 1919 its executive secretary. Up to that time no practical work had been done or even mapped out. Miss Chambers has continuously served the association to this time and now has six well founded county tuberculosis associations carrying out their own definite health programs. The association also is carrying on a State-wide educational work for health, the State Federation of Women's Clubs and other agencies co-operating. The latest achievement in which Miss Chambers was very active was to secure an appropriation for a State negro sanatorium. She has also been influential in securing the premises of the State Department of Education and the State Normal School to adopt courses in health education.

Miss Chambers was the first woman in the history of Arkansas to be sworn into the State Legislature, in 1923, the second being Mrs. Sidney Hunt of Pine Bluff, who was one of the two women serving as pioneers in this field.

Pushed Welfare Bills.
Representing Pulaski County, Miss Chambers introduced 12 bills, nine of which were passed. She and Mrs. Hunt were joint authors of the maternity bill, which accepted for Arkansas the Sheppard-Towner bill. This was a hard-fought measure that won, among other bills handled by Miss Chambers during her first term was that far assisting the indigent blind and an appropriation for the State Illustration Commission, which was hard-fought in the House. She was in active charge of a total of 18 bills in the House, 11 of which passed. All measures affecting health, education and charitable institutions received her thorough attention. She has consistently fought for the past 19 years to have all State charitable institutions placed under unpaid boards of administration. "Experience has demonstrated that the purposes of institutional care will never be carried out if each Governor makes their management a plum for political henchmen," says Miss Chambers.

The character of Miss Chambers' support is indicated by the fact that both capital and labor were behind her. She was the one candidate that all creeds and factions agreed upon. Her service to her State has been self-evident. Her reputation is not for "obliging everybody" but for investigating facts and then being absolutely fair. She is a pioneer who has planned constructively and then stayed on the job every minute until it was finished or put into the hands of those who could best carry on.

Two Other Representatives.
Mrs. Sidney Hunt of Pine Bluff, who will again represent Jefferson County in the Legislature, is serving for her second term. Mrs. Frank Thompson of Helena, new woman Representative from Phillips County, is a well-known clubwoman and writer. She is a member of the League of American Penwomen and the Arkansas As-thors and Composers' Society.

Elected to County Office.
Eight Arkansas women were nominated to the office of County Treasurer.

Mrs. L. K. Land, Pine Bluff newspaper woman, was chosen at the primary for County Treasurer, defeating two men opponents, one of whom was endorsed by the Ku Klux Klan.

Mrs. Land for 10 years has been society and feature writer on the Pine Bluff Commercial. In addition, she has been an active worker in club circles and literary campaigns. Mrs. Land, unlike many women who enter politics, has a most interesting home life. She is the wife of Dr. L. K. Land, Pine Bluff dentist, and is the mother of three children.

Others nominated for county treasurerships are: Miss Grace Castleberry, Drew County; Miss Birdie Holmes, Cleveland County; Mrs. E. F. Johnson, Cleburne County; Mrs. Ida Anderson, Cleburne County; Mrs. W. F. Eckenrode, Logan County; Mrs. A. Garman, Phillips County; Miss Clara Austin, Lonoke County.

As County Clerk, Miss Anna Patton was nominated in Benton County; Miss Anna Tatum, Union County; Mrs. Anna Cannon, Arkansas County.
Miss Duke Pike was nominated Circuit Clerk of Arkansas County.

LITTLE PROSPECT SEEN OF SALVING THE LUSTANIA

British Experts Said to Think
Weight of Sea Has Crushed
Liner Flat.

Correspondence of the Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 4.—Chances are that the Lusitania, sunk off the Irish coast by a German torpedo in May, 1915, never will be raised, according to David Masters, author of a book which describes the wonders of salvage.

The sheer weight of the sea, the writer points out, quickly obliterated man's handiwork, and the Lusitania probably ceased to be a ship years ago. It is extremely likely that the tremendous pressure to which she was subjected at the depth of 285 feet long ago crushed her flat, he says.

The liner's 30-ton safe, full of valuables, would be strong enough, one might think, to resist the pressure of the sea; but even the chances of salvaging the safe alone from the liner's strong room do not appeal to the writer as being worth the risk.

Scores of schemes have been propounded for salvaging the Lusitania. An American has proposed to use a submarine which would fire torpedoes through the hull. Each torpedo would carry a steel cable. When sufficient cables had been fired, they would be picked up on the other side, brought to the surface, and the wreck lifted from the depths. Experts say this ingenious scheme is simple in theory, but impracticable, and that the Lusitania remains, and is likely to remain, where she sank more than nine years ago.

Soviet Bares Field Glasses.
Correspondence of the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Aug. 15.—Russia's field glasses are military equipment and dangerous to Russia's safety when owned by foreigners, in the opinion of soviet customs officers. Their importation is forbidden, and consequently, they are seized at the border, is the report of a German citizen, recently returned from Russia, minus a new and expensive pair of binoculars.

DEMANDS BODY OF HUSBAND SHE KILLED

Woman Claims Right to Direct Burial of Man She Shot in Auto.

Wearing mourning for the husband whom she shot and killed, Mrs. Della Niethe of 7127 Tremont avenue, today went to the Coroner's office and demanded the body of Adolph E. Niethe.

Niethe's three brothers had planned to hold the funeral tomorrow afternoon at a chapel at 4102 Manchester avenue, and the body had been delivered to the undertaker selected by them. Following the wife's demand, this undertaker was directed by the Coroner to take the body back to the Morgue, to be held pending a family conference.

Mrs. Niethe was released last night on $10,000 bond. She said to the Coroner that she was willing that Niethe's body should be buried in the family lot in Behrens Cemetery, as planned by his brothers, but that she would insist on having the body handled by an undertaker selected by her, and that she claimed the right to direct the burial.

The Coroner's inquest had been set for this morning, but because of the difficulty developing over the body, it was postponed until next Tuesday morning.

The brothers, when they learned of the wife's objections to their plans, said they would recognize her right to the body, and would try to reach an understanding with her.

As told yesterday, Mrs. Niethe shot her husband twice as he sat in his automobile near the home of one of his brothers, at 7043 Winona avenue, about 10 o'clock Wednesday night. At the time, they had been quarreling in the presence of Mrs. Niethe's nephew and two nieces, who lived with them. Niethe, his wife said, had left her last week, and refused to return to her. She said she fired the revolver "to square him," and that she meant to fire "wantonly," so as to miss him. She had previously filed a charge of nonsupport against Niethe, who was a union painter.

Receives $10,000 for Injury.
Mrs. Klara Heffrich filed suit in Circuit Court at Belleville yesterday for $10,000 against George and Samuel Sackett and Henry Eberlein, owners of "Dew Drop Inn" on the Mascoutah road. She sets forth that she fell while attending a picnic at the pleasure resort and suffered a fractured hip.

GOOD HEALTH NOW A CERTAINTY

New Treatment Containing Seventeen Ingredients Re-
news Every Part of Body.

This complete treatment is found only in a prescription known as Be-Cu-Ma, which contains seventeen well-known and thoroughly tested medicines, so skillfully compounded that each one performs its functions on the various parts of the body perfectly and harmoniously.

This remarkable prescription thoroughly cleanses the colon of its accumulation of poisonous refuse instead of allowing it to course through the veins and empty into the body. In addition, Be-Cu-Ma starts the liver to work, pleasantly and naturally, purifies and strengthens the blood, thus building firm, healthy, rosy flesh that is free from pimples and other skin blemishes; relieves rheumatic and back pains, gives you a digestion that enables you to eat anything you like and you sleep like a log.

Be-Cu-Ma is a scientific prescription that revives, renews and regenerates your entire system and is sold and recommended by all good drug stores.

During 1923 the Post-Dispatch printed 12,000 "Wanted" notices more than the morning competitor and more than FOUR times as many as the two other St. Louis evening newspapers combined.

GOOD HEALTH NOW A CERTAINTY

Treatment Containing Seventeen Ingredients Re-
news Every Part of Body.

This complete treatment is found only in a prescription known as
"Re-Co-Ma," which contains seventeen known and thoroughly tested ingredients, so skillfully compounded that each one performs its functions on the various parts of the body perfectly and harmoniously.
This remarkable prescription thoroughly cleanses the colon of its accumulation of poisonous refuse instead of allowing it to course through the veins and empty into the body. In addition, Re-Co-Ma starts the liver to work, pleasantly and naturally, purifies and strengthens the blood, thus building firm, healthy, rosy flesh that is free from rashes and other skin blemishes;
relieves rheumatic and back pains, gives you a digestion that enables you to eat anything you like and you sleep like a log.
Re-Co-Ma is a scientific prescription that revives, renews and regenerates your entire system and is highly recommended by all good physicians.

During 1933 the Post-Dispatch

DOCTOR'S APARTMENTS ROBBED

Burglar Forces Doors and Gets Money and Jewelry.

The apartment building at 3455
Lafayette avenue was entered last night by a burglar, who forced doors open with a screw driver and robbed the apartment of Dr.
George T. Mehan of $55 and jewelry valued at $125, and the apartment of Dr. Arthur W. Stern of $250. In both instances the money was taken from the trousers pocket of the doctors.

The home of T. R. Sleeper, 1444
South Theresa avenue, was robbed of $10 and a diamond stickpin by a burglar last night, and the Phi Beta Pi fraternity house at 4923 Forest Park boulevard, was robbed of $25 and cigarettes, by a burglar who took the money and cigarettes from the students' rooms.

TWO ROBBERY WARRANTS AGAINST EAST ST. LOUIS MAN

Harry Hunsacker Identified in Two Recent Holdups Held in Default of $30,000 Bond.

Two warrants, each charging highway robbery, were issued at Belleville yesterday by State Attorney Lindauer against Harry Hunsacker, 38 years old, a punch-board distributor who was arrested Tuesday at his home in East St. Louis.

Hunsacker was identified yesterday, Deputy Sheriff says, as being one of three men who robbed the Sussman Brothers' Grocery Co.,
416 St. Louis avenue, of more than $2000 last month by Theodore Lischmann, a watchman, who was in the store at the time of the robbery. Miss Agnes Hanwar and her mother, who operate a store at 3001 West Main street, Belleville, also identified him as being one of two armed men who held them up Aug. 2 and robbed them of $4. Hunsacker, who is held in the county jail in default of $30,- 000 bond, denies being implicated in the robberies.

The arrest was made by Joseph Schrader, a private detective who also holds a special Deputy Sheriff's commission, shortly after he had been employed by a number of East St. Louis merchants in an effort to check the number of safe robberies there. He said yesterday he is attempting to connect Hunsacker with a number of safe robberies. When arrested a finger on Hunsacker's left hand was broken. Schrader believes the finger was broken while attempting to open a safe in dead-ening the noise. Hunsacker said it was caused when a window of his automobile fell on the finger.

He said he had not been to a physician for treatment.

SEVEN KILLED AT CROSSING

Two Others Injured When Train
Hit Auto in Ohio.

By the Associated Press.
TOLEDO, O., Aug. 25.—Seven persons were killed and two children seriously injured last night
when a Baltimore & Ohio train struck an automobile on a grade crossing at the southern limits of Perryburg, 12 miles south of here.
The dead are: Cyrus Uptegraft, 74 years old, his wife, son, daughter-in-law and three grandchildren.
Two other grandchildren were seriously injured. The accident occurred at a crossing, which is said to be constructed to the view of motorists.

MIDGET'S GRAVE ROBBED

COMBINED CIRCUSES TO OPEN HERE TOMORROW

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Will Show Here Three Days.

The Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Show, the largest circus in the world, with 800 performers and 2000 animals, will open a three-day visit in St. Louis tomorrow under a big top on the old Ranken tract, at Market street and Compton avenue, with a matinee at 3 p. m. It will be their first appearance in St. Louis in three years.

The performers, the animals and the equipment will arrive in two trains of 100 cars tomorrow morning, coming from Mattoon, Ill. There will be no parade because of the labor involved in getting the tent colony ready by 1 p. m. when the gates of the menagerie are opened to visitors.

A census submitted by circus officials lists 1821 people, including the 800 performers, 785 horses, 28 camels, 1009 caged animals, giraffes, ostriches and zebras, two-thirds of the elephants in America, a family of hippopotami and a giant rhinoceros.

The animals journey in a separate train. The gates will open be 1 and 7 p. m. daily, tomorrow, Sunday and Monday, in order that they may be viewed.

The Combined Show boasts the largest tent in America with a capacity for 15,000 spectators. The performance will open with a pageant after which star performers will appear simultaneously in three rings and on four stages. The list of performers includes May Wirth, equestrienne; Lily Lietzel, aerialist; Berta Beeson, wire walker; the Nelson family, acrobats, and John Daniel II, educated gorilla, who drives his own Ford sedan.

A downtown ticket office has been opened at the Judge & Dolph drug store, 514 Washington avenue. General admission will be 75 cents, with a special rate of 50 cents for children under 12. Reserved seats will be $1.50.

Accused of Starting Fire to Get Job. By the Associated Press. LEAD, S. D., Aug. 23.—George Woodward, a 19-year-old ranch hand from near Hill City, is alleged by authorities to have confessed he started three forest fires in the Black Hills reservation Tuesday in order that he might obtain lucrative employment fighting them. He was arraigned today and held in $1000 bonds.

WANTS IN KLAN PARADES
The John County Sheriff, George W. Smith, has issued a proclamation forbidding the Ku Klux Klan from participating in any parade on Labor Day, August 31, 1924. The proclamation states that the Klan is a "hate organization" and that its members are "unlawful and dangerous to the peace and good order of the community."

NO STRIKES FOR PRESSMEN IF ARBITRATION IS POSSIBLE

Employers Who Agree to Collective Bargaining to Get Continuous Service, Berry Says.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 28.—"We have said, and in my judgment properly so, that when an employer agrees to accept the principle of collective bargaining, to conciliate and to arbitrate when conciliation fails, he has gone as far as any sensible person could expect him to go and he is entitled as a consequence to the continuity of operation and the unstinted co-operation of organized labor and the public."

This statement was made by Major George L. Berry, president of the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union of North America at the thirteenth biennial convention of the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union of North America, held at Pressmen's Home, Tenn., this week.

He had just touched on the "totally unwarranted act of subordination" unions in New York City, which occurred last September and which he said "was promptly and effectively disavowed by the international union and brought to a conclusion, and which is now accepted by all parties concerned as an act that strengthened rather than minimized our position of integrity and capacity as a great international organization. We shall engage in no strikes or industrial disorders so long as the principle of arbitration can possibly be applied and that depends, insofar as we are concerned, upon the sole incitation of the employing printer and newspaper publishers of America."

SUE TO BREAK WILL OF FATHER

Son and Daughter of August Klein Bring Action at Belleville.
Alleging that August Klein, their father, was not aware of the contents of the document purported to be his last will, Mrs. Josephine Klein and John Klein of Belleville filed suit yesterday in the St. Clair County Circuit Court asking that the will be set aside. The suit is directed against the following brothers and sisters of the plaintiff: Eugene Klein, Eugene Klein Jr., Mildred Klein, Josephine Klein, Edna Klein and Raymond Klein.
Under the will the plaintiffs are cut off with bequests of $5 each while the residue of the estate is left to the defendants in the suit. Klein died June 21 of this year and the will was executed Nov. 28, 1919.

INDIANS POPULAR AS ACTORS IN OUTDOOR ENTERTAINMENTS

Invitations From Many Cities in Southwest for Kiowa Performers.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
MOUNTAIN VIEW, Ok., Aug. 28.—The red-blanket Indian is back into favor as a feature of outdoor entertainment. Calls for Kiowa Indians to attend conventions, picnics, rodeos, reunions and other outdoor meetings came in larger numbers this year. The Kiowa became nearly as popular an attraction as he was 20 years ago, shortly after the opening of the Kiowa and Comanche Indian country.
The latest invitation to these Indians, a majority of whom live on allotments in and near the Wichita Mountains, came from the Tri-State Fair Association of Amarillo, Tex., which is to have its exhibition in September. Mike Holland, executive director of the company, came to negotiate with the Redskins.

HIS "LION'S SHARE" IS ENDED

Athur Van der Welt, 29 years old, also known as C. E. Berg, who claims to be district organizer of the Royal Order of Lions, was arrested at Eighteenth street and Locust boulevard yesterday on complaint of two salesmen that he wanted them to become Lions.
It appears Van der Welt had a scheme by which he had hoped to organize all traveling salesmen into a secret order and then open chain stores of various kinds for them to patronize. For this work he was to charge an initiation fee in the Royal Order of Lions, of which he was to receive the proverbial lion's share, $7, while $3 was to go for upkeep of the main menagerie at Evansville, Ind. He is being held for investigation.

Prize for Civilian Planes

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The National Aeronautic Association announces that a cross-country race for civilian-owned light airplanes will start at Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, O., on Oct. 6. A trophy and $1000 in cash prizes will be given by Capt. E. V. Rickenbacker, American "ace," to encourage the development of the light airplane in the United States.

Attila's Grave to Be Excavated

Correspondence of the Associated Press.

Duofold Jr. or Lady Duofold

The $7 Duofold in a $5 Size

Never Failing—Never Ailing

Jewel-Smooth 25-Year Point

$1 Gold Girdle at No Extra Charge

No Reason Now to Buy a Cheap Pen

YES, in every respect save 'size, the Duofold Jr. or Lady Duofold is a $7 pen like the famous Over-size Duofold. And the price of these smaller Duofolds is only $5—Gold Pocket-clip or Gold Ring—and included, as well as the strong Gold Girdle around the cap.

It's a value the public itself has made possible by focusing demand on Parker Pens, thus scaling down the cost.

But great as the value of a Duofold is, the value of having it is several times greater! For Duofold brings you the speed and character in writing that win with the world. And the writing urge that makes work welcome.

Notwithstanding that Duofold is the classic of pens, it's the most economical made. For its point—if not mistreated—is guaranteed for 25 years' WEAR.

Wherever this black-tipped lacquer-red beauty is seen, its owner commands the world's respect.

Any good pen counter will sell you Parker Duofold on 30 days' approval. But look for this stamp on the barrel—“Geo. S. Parker—DUOFOLD—Lucky Curve.” Then imitations can't deceive you.

NATIVES OF AMERICAN SAMOA WANT THEIR STATUS DEFINED
Swain's Island Anxious to Have Congress Act Formally on Sovereignty.
PAGO PAGO, American Samoa, Aug. 11.—The recommendation of Secretary of State Hughes that the sovereignty of the United States be extended over Swain's Island, was reported here by radio when President Coolidge sent it to the Senate. It caused surprise, and raised the question of the status of American Samoa.
Swain's Island, known as Olosea to the Samoans, lies north of Samoa. Originally it was a coral atoll and was built up by the energy of the original settlers and their descendants. Many shiploads of earth have been taken from Samoa to build up the small island and it now produces many coconuts. Though always connected with Samoa commercially, it had been classed as one of the Tokelau group of islands, belonging to Great Britain.
Leaders among the natives of American Samoa say they want a bill passed by Congress, defining the status of their country in its relation to the United States. The chiefs of Tutuila have been asking this for 24 years.
Thus far the islands are known to Congress as "the United States naval station, Tutuila." The naval station is at Pago Pago, and the country outside, although styled part of the station for some purposes, has nothing to do with it in other respects, and this has led to confusion.

PARLIAMENT PAY 'TOO SMALL'
Labor Members Have to Supplement $2000 Salary.
LONDON, Aug. 10.—Members of the Labor party who have been elected to Parliament find that the salary of $2000 yearly is barely sufficient. In fact, many of them have to supplement their official income by week-end speaking engagements, lectures and writing magazine articles.
It is said by several members that one of the most expensive items is that of entertaining visitors from constituencies who call to "see how their member is getting on," and incidentally to have a look around and be entertained on the famous terrace with tea or lunch.

BROWNS 1, DETROIT 0 (2 INNINGS, FIRST GAME); CARDS 4, CUBS 0 (1½ INNINGS)

Jacobson Doubles To Score McManus; Davis on Mound

By J. Roy Stockton,
Of the Post-Dispatch Staff.

SPORTSMAN'S PARK, Aug. 29.—Ty Cobb and his patched-up machine opened a series with the Browns here this afternoon with a doubleheader.

The series will go a long way toward showing which team will finish in the money in the American League season, although the Browns have just returned from a disastrous trip, a crowd of 10,000 was present when the first game started.

Davis and Whitehill were the pitchers.

The umpire, Bill Evans and Brick Owens, gave St. Louis their first glimpse of the new uniforms ordered by Ben Johnson.

FIRST INNING.
DETROIT—Burke filed to Tomlin. Slater made a first stop of McManus's hard smash and beat him to the bag. Davis tossed out Cobb. NO RUNS.

BROWNS—Tobin tapped to Whitehill. McManus filed to Cobb. Burke tossed out Slater. NO RUNS.

SECOND INNING.
DETROIT—McManus fumbled Heilmann's hot grounder but recovered and threw him out. Jones fouled to Severid. O'Rourke was called out on strikes. NO RUNS.

BROWNS—Burke threw out Williams. McManus walked. On the hit and run, Jacobson doubled to right, scoring McManus. Severid walked. Gerber hit to O'Rourke and when Burke dropped the throw at second the bases were filled. Davis hit into a double play, Burke taking his grounder and tagging Gerber and throwing to Pratt to retire Davis. ONE RUN.

DUNCAN IS WINNER IN DOUBLE TARGET EVENT
By the Associated Press.
DAYTON, O., Aug. 29.—H. L. Wiseman, Somerset, O., won the preliminary handicap event of the Grand American tournament at Vandalla yesterday. He made a score of 55 targets out of 104 on a 14-yard line.

Merriam, Kan., took second place in the event when he triumphed on a shoot-off over J. E. Kieffaber of Buffalo. Kieffaber automatically went into third place.

E. U. Brooks of Columbia, S. C., took fourth place in a shoot-off with a straight score of 25. His rival was F. G. Ellis of Waterbury, N. H.

The hazardous double target event was won by Boyd Duncan of Troy, Tenn., in a professional trap-shooter. He took the trophy after running 51 straight in a shoot-off with the 24 targets broke by Paul Earle, Starr, S. C. The men had tied at 27 targets.

The closing feature of the tournament will come today when the Grand American Handicap will be decided.

Pacer Drops Dead After Race
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 29.—Happy Paris, chestnut mare, owned by D. C. McKinley of Independence, Mo., dropped dead under the wire at the 2:20 pace on the Iowa State Fair race track yesterday. The animal had finished second in the first heat and although it was wobbling as it came to the judge's stand in the second heat, it finished the race.

Johnston Beats Elmer Griffin in Singles Tourney

By the Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 29.—William M. Johnston swept through to the fifth round in the national men's singles tennis tournament, overwhelming Elmer Griffin, brother of "Little Bill" Griffin, partner with the loss of four games, at 6-2, 6-1, 6-1.

Griffin sustained many sparkling rallies with his chop strokes but Johnston's placement driving gave him the deciding points whenever he needed them.

Griffin broke through Johnston's service once, in the first set and then won the next game on his own delivery, but that was the largest measure of success he had against his famous opponent. In the second set, Griffin managed to win one game after it was decided eight times, and the last set Johnston's errors gave him another.

It was the hottest day of the week. A gallery of 4000 was present.

The Results.

FOURTH ROUND.

William M. Johnston, San Francisco, defeated Elmer Griffin, San Francisco, 6-2, 6-1, 6-1.

SPECIAL DAILY

By a Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—After

nearly a week of irregular trading

the market turned about today and was quite strong from start to finish.

The buying represented mainly by covering by shorts who wished to clear out of commitments on the holidays. Prices left off at the top with quite a flurry in the industrial leaders.

Steel common ran into the same

support around 107, and the

WEST AFRICA DISCARDS YAMS TO EAT WHEAT BREAD

Native's New Taste Opens Up Field for American Exporters, Says Consul

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Native of British and French West Africa are rapidly adopting wheat bread, made of wheat flour, as a regular item of diet, and agriculture department officials foresee an increased trade in flour with that territory.

The growing demand for wheat flour is the result of laborers being recruited from the interior for service in the seaport towns where, according to American Consul W. J. Yerby, at Dakar, Senegal, it is quite common for these laborers to make a meal of a loaf of bread and a tin of water. Baker's bread is replacing millet mush and rice in Senegal and Gambia, Consul Yerby reports, cassava and manioc dumplings and rice in French Guinea, Sierra Leone, and Liberia.

NATIONAL CAPITOL REVAMPED

New Ventilating Method to Be Used—Heating System Repaired.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—When Congress reconvenes in December a number of alterations will be found in the Capitol and its environs. An improved method of ventilating the House and Senate chambers will be ready for use; the heating system will be revamped; boilers for supplying heat, light and power to the historic building will be newly installed, and final touches put on the new fire protection apparatus.

WHEAT CROP OF 21 COUNTRIES TO BE 2,171,000,000 BUSHELS

46 Nations Reporting to Agriculture Department Show Falling Off From Last Year.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Wheat production forecasts received by the Department of Agriculture up to today from 21 countries give an aggregate production of 2,171,000,000 bushels, compared with 2,449,000,000 last year. These countries produced 80 per cent of the crop of the Northern Hemisphere in 1935, exclusive of Russia and China. Of the 21 countries, increases are shown only in the United States, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Morocco and Korea.

The forecast for Yugoslavia is 65,342,000 bushels, compared with a production of 61,049,000 last year. Switzerland was among the countries in which smaller wheat and other grain crops are forecast.

Human Bones Buried in His Yard.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Aug. 22.—J. R. Jackson of McIntosh County is in the Glynn County jail for safety while authorities of McIntosh are investigating the finding of human bones buried in his yard.

Breaks Jail, Weds. Then Returns.

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, Aug. 18.—Fritz Linker, serving a sentence for theft, escaped recently and wrote a letter to the jailers saying he was then on his honeymoon and that he would return as soon as the wedding was ended. In three weeks Linker gave himself up. When he wrote the letter, he said he had no such intentions, but his wife heard of his promises and in-

stated that he keep his word and go back to prison, promising that when his time was up

she would be awaiting him.

A positive, permanent cure guaranteed in every case of Piles, by the use of the method employed only by myself, and the result of 25 years of practice in my specialty—the treatment of Piles, Fistula, Fissure, Ulcers, etc.

St. Louis, Mo., July 6, 1936

Dr. C. Matthew Coe:

Dear Doctor Coe—I had suffered with Piles for several years. I came to you. I had undergone an operation for them two years ago. It did not cure. For I had just as much—or more—trouble after the operation. I am very sorry that I did not come to you instead of the operation, for I would have been saved endless pain and much trouble. Before taking your treatment I lost time from my work, and every day in comfort.

I am recommending every one I know who is afflicted with trouble to go to you, for I know that you can cure them.

Sincerely,

Mr. Thomas P. Rieck

The Man on the Sandbox

by L. Adams

THE OLD HOCUM BUCKET

HOW dear to this heart are the scenes of my childhood. When fond recollection presents them to view: The hard-mapsle trees in the deep tangled wildwood Where sap from the trees into sugar we'd stew. The old open kettle in which we would boil it. To make maple-sugar to keep and to sell; The pump and the washpan for making the toilet And e'en the sap-bucket that stood in the dell. The old hocum bucket, the worm-eaten bucket. The moss-covered bucket that stood in the dell.

GOING AND COMING. Gen. Dawes is out for the common sense vote while Calvin will try to catch the ahead vote with his sap-bucket.

The man on the sandbox says you'll never have any idea how grand grand opera really is until you hear it at the Municipal theater.

FAVORITE STORIES

By Irvin S. Cobb

THE INTERCHANGEABLE NAME.

I was out in Minnesota on a fishing trip not long ago. As a boy in St. Paul we were entertained by a most charming lady. In the living-room where we sat after dinner I was shown by a photograph, framed in silver and displayed upon the wall, of an exceedingly handsome and well-set-up boy in his early twenties. I inquired who the original of the picture might be. "That," explained the matron, "is our son—our only child, off at camp for the summer."

"What is his name?" I asked. "I'll spell it for you," said our hostess. "It's A-a-a-a-a." "Rather unusual," I said. "How do you pronounce it?" "That all depends," stated the lady. "You see, ours was a mixed marriage. As you may have guessed, I am Jewish. My parents were orthodox Jews, while my husband, as you know, was of pure Irish descent. Both of us are proud of the race to which we belong. When our son was born each of us was naturally of the opinion that he should wear a name which would be agreeable to both and yet at the same time would have a familiar and affectionate sound in the ears of all concerned. So after a number of consultations we reached a compromise. My husband calls him 'Erin' and I call him 'Aaron'."

CALLERS HAD ARRIVED.

H. C. BARNABEE, star of the famous old Bostonians Open House, was once engaged in a poker game. There were only two that had not been scared out by the various values. He eyed each other wickedly. Barnabee's vis-a-vis took two cards and drew, the comedian but one. The opposite man found he had better the three-jacks he was holding, but believed they were two pair he felt Barnabee had. To bring matters to a close he pushed forward all the chips he had and waited inquiringly. "Is that all you have?" asked the sad-faced comedian before he looked at his hand. "Every cent in sight."

Just then the agent of the Bostonians put his head in the door and said: "Mr. Barnabee, there is a gentleman in the lobby who wants to see you."

"Wait just a minute," said Barnabee. He carefully shuffled his cards and found that he had filled the card. He turned to the agent in the doorway at the same time reaching for his stake, and said: "Kindly tell the gentleman at the moment I have returned."

REPARATION
PAYMENTSFrench Government to Order
Evacuation of Ruhr
Tomorrow—To Begin at Dortmund.PACT FORMALLY
SIGNED AT LONDONAgreement Outlines Ways and Means for Putting the Dawes Program Into Effect.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Aug. 20.—The appointment of Owen D. Young of New York as agent-general for reparation payments at interim was announced by the Reparations Commission today.

The pact outlining ways and means of putting the Dawes reparation program in effect was signed by representatives of the various nations at London today.

The appointments also were announced by the Reparations Commission as trustees to receive and administer the German railway bonds, Sugar, Tobacco, of Italy, for the industrial debentures and Andrew MacFadyen of England as commissioner of controlled revenues.

M. De Lacroix will retain his place as a member of the reparations commission acting as trustee without additional salary. MacFadyen, who is now general secretary of the commission will vacate his present post.

No word has been received from Seymour Parker Gilder Jr., former Undersecretary of the American Treasury Department as to whether he would be willing to accept the post of agent-general after Young leaves it.

The organization committee of the new German bank of issue today appointed Gates W. McGarragh of New York as the American member of its general board. McGarragh is chairman of the board of the Mechanics and Metals National Bank of New York and a member of the boards of various banks and industrial corporations. From 1917 until 1919 he was president of the New York Clearing House Association. McGarragh, born in Monroe, N. Y., is 61 years old.

The appointment was made by Sir Robert Kindersley of England and Dr. Hjalmar Schacht of Germany, who was appointed as other foreign members of the board of directors which will elect a bank commissioner who will act in accordance with the opinions expressed by the different foreign members.

No Salaries Yet Fixed.
McGarragh has accepted his appointment and it is expected he will arrive in Berlin at the earliest possible date so that there may be no delay in the meeting of the general board, the other six foreign members of which have not yet been named. The important post of Bank Commissioner, under the Reparations Commission, it has been decided, will go to a Hollander. No salaries have as yet been fixed.

Young is not taking any salary. He has appointed Leon Fraser, an American attached to the legal service division of the Reparations Commission, as his assistant, and he has directed him to leave immediately for Berlin, where he will open an office on Monday. Young will leave for Berlin about the middle of next week. Young has made an extraordinarily deep impression upon the members of the Reparations Commission.

His advice is regarded by Leon Barthou, president of the commission, and the other members as essential to the smooth beginning of the Dawes plan.

Commission Statement.
The commission, in announcing its appointments, made the following comments:

"As the services of a permanent agent-general will not be immediately available, Mr. Young, who is one of the experts of the first committee has been good enough to accept the post of agent-general at interim."
